Date: 10.03.2008

Dear, Prof. Chary

Further to your request, the DEC had sent an expert committee to visit your institution and assess its preparedness to offer distance education programmes. Keeping in view the recommendations of the committee, the Chairman, DEC, is pleased to accord recognition to your institution for a period of one year from the date of issue of this letter for offering programmes (approved by the statutory authority of the institution) through distance mode.

You are also requested to note and comply with the committee recommendations mentioned below and intimate to DEC accordingly:

- The University shall follow the self learning methodology in preparation of the courseware and should transform the existing material into SLM.
- The University should create the necessary systems and manuals for the conduct of the distance education programs.
- University should switch over to credit system in a year's time
- The University shall create appropriate system for orientation to the Distance Education Faculty, the Co-coordinators, Academic Counselors and course writers with the help of STRIDE, Indira Gandhi National Open University.
- The University must explore continuous evaluation and assessment system for all programmes.
- Term End Examination (TEE) may be conducted twice a year in stead of four times a year.
- The university should ensure that the degrees in case of foreign students are from those specified in the AIU Manual.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Swaraj Basu
