ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Energy Audit team of M/s. Navy Blue Resources Integration & Solutions Pvt Ltd (NBRI) conducted Campus Environmental Audit of The ICFAI University Tripura, Kamalghat, Agartala, on 18th, October, 2024.

We would like to thank Hon. Vice Chancellor for providing us an opportunity to carry out Campus Environmental Audit at your Facility and would also like to thank all other staff of facility for providing all the support during audit and report preparations.

The purpose of this assessment is to conduct a complete energy performance assessment of Mechanical & Electrical Equipment, Water Audit, Renewable Energy Feasibility, Waste Management and Green Audit within the said site to identify whether the existing systems can sufficiently handle the loads required by your operations and seeking improved workplace efficiently.

CERTIFICATE

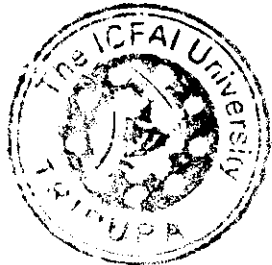

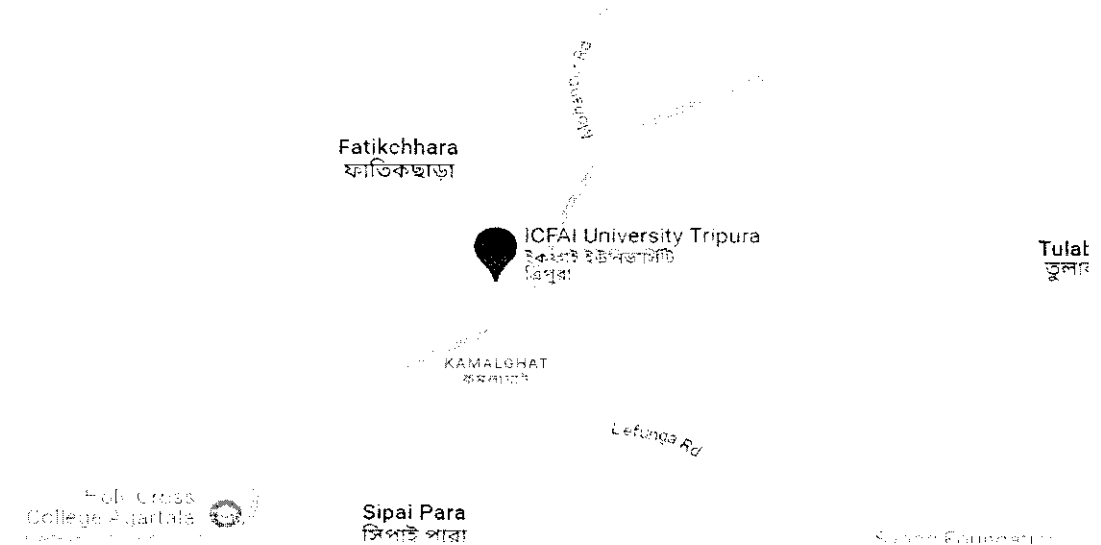

We here by certify that we carried out Green Audit in The ICFAI University Tripura, Kamalghat, Agartala, on 18th October, 2024 and following Observations were presented below. The Management is pro-active towards Green Initiative by Rainwater Harvesting, Solar Energy Project Planning, Planting Trees, Better Water Conservation, Waste Management, Carbon Footprint; A continual improvement in Green Initiative is appreciated. We appreciate the efforts of the campus management this regard.

INTRODUCTION

The ICFAI University, Tripura was established in 2004 through an Act of State Legislature (Tripura Act 8 of 2004). The University is located at Kamalghat, Agartala. The ICFAI University Tripura is a constituent university of Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India (ICFAI) group. Established in 2004, The ICFAI University Tripura is recognised by the UGC and accredited by NAAC. The University is presently offering 50+ numbers of Diplomas, Under-graduate, Post-graduates and Ph.D programmes in the fields of Engineering and Technology, Basic Science(Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics), Liberal Arts, English, Law, Management, Commerce, Education, Special Education, Physical Education, Yoga & Naturopathy, Psychology, Clinical Psychology, Library & Information Sciences, Allied Health Sciences ,Nursing, Hospital Administration, Laboratory Technology and about 6000 students pursued various programmes in the University.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

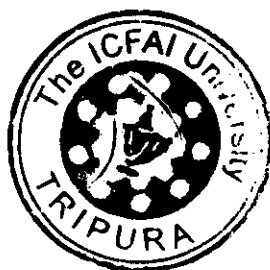

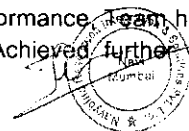

ENERGY AUDIT

Navy Blue Energy Audit team observed some energy conservation opportunity in the premises. Facility can minimize its energy consumption by executing following Energy Conservation measures.

Table 2 Executive Summary

Energy Conservation Measures (ECM)	Estimated Energy Saving	Estimated Monetary Saving	Estimated Investment	Simple Payback Period
	kWh/Year	INR/Year	INR	Months
Replace Conventional Fan with Energy Efficient BLDC Fans	171812	1560503	4112000	32
Replace Electric Geysers with Solar Water Heater	101498	921873	1200000	16
Total	273310	2482376	5312000	26

Navy Blue Energy Audit team has thoroughly assessed the complete facility Performance. It has been observed that there will be around 29% of Energy Savings Can be Achieved further by implementing the above-mentioned ECM's.

WATER AUDIT

Table 3 Water Conservation Measures

Water Conservation Measures	Water savings Potential kL/Year
Water conservation potential by using water efficient taps	6753
Water saving opportunities with Dual flushing technique in toilet	9071
Total	15825

Navy Blue Water Audit team has thoroughly assessed the complete facility Performance, Team has been observed that there will be around 31% of Water Savings Can be Achieved further by implementing the above-mentioned WCM's.

WASTE DISPOSAL AUDIT

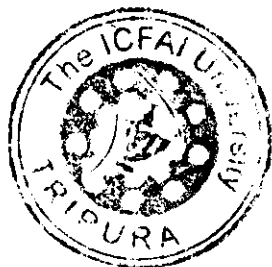

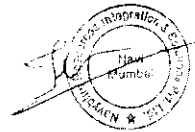

Presently University is practicing the waste segregation on site only- good practice.

GREENERY-

Presently the campus has greenery is around the campus, more trees can be planted to increase the green cover further.

CARBON FOOTPRINT-

Total 7436kg of CO₂ is getting emitted by the campus per day.

OBJECTIVE OF AUDIT -

1. The objective of carrying out Green Audit is securing the environment and cut down the threats posed to human health.
2. To make sure that rules and regulations are taken care of
3. To avoid the interruptions in environment that are more difficult to handle and their correction requires high cost.
4. To suggest the best protocols for adding to sustainable development.

SCOPE OF WORK-

Scope of Green Audit shall consider following steps;

ENERGY AUDIT:

It deals with the energy conservation and methods to reduce its consumption and the related pollution. The auditor targets at the energy consuming methods adopted and find whether these methods are using the energy in a conservative way or not.

WATER AUDIT:

Evaluating the facilities of raw water intake and determining the facilities for water treatment. Water harvesting is one of the best techniques that can be adopted by simply storing the water and using it at the time of scarcity. The concerned auditor investigates the relevant method that can be adopted and implemented to balance the demand and supply of water

WASTE DISPOSAL AUDIT:

The waste clearance measures associated to hazardous wastes and recycling are reviewed. The auditor diagnoses the prevailing waste disposal policies and suggests the best way to combat the problems.

ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AUDIT:

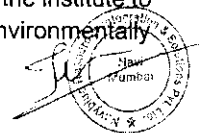

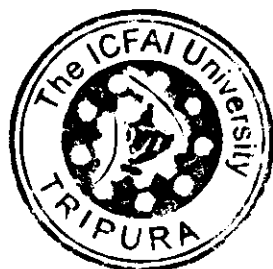

It analyses the air quality, noise level and the programs undertaken by the institute for plantation. The Green Belt should be maintained to reduce the pollution level by decreasing the Carbon dioxide level.

RENEWABLE ENERGY FEASIBILITY

Resources which can be replenished should be used such as rain, sunlight, wind, tides, etc. These resources are more advantageous as they cause least pollution. The importance of these resources is explained by the Audit team.

CARBON ACCOUNTING:

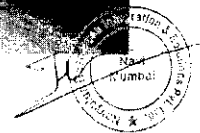

It undertakes the measure of bulk of carbon dioxide equivalents exhaled by the organization through which the carbon accounting is done. It is necessary to know how much the organization is contributing towards the sustainable development. The auditor considers several efforts practiced by the institute to lower the Green House Gases in the atmosphere in order to make the campus more environmentally friendly.

GOALS OF THE UNIVERSITY

In the effort to Enhancing an environmentally literate campus where students can learn the idea of protection of environment and stay healthy. The University is proactively working on the several facets of "Green Campus" including Plantation of more trees, Water Conservation, Efficient water usage by eliminating leaking water taps, Water Harvesting Pits and interconnecting them to Recharge the Ground Water table. Effective Waste Management which includes Food Waste, Plastic, Paper, Metal Work, Renewable Energy, carbon footprints etc.

1. To create a green campus with focus on above concepts
2. To Harness Solar Power
3. To Conserve Water by eliminating the water leakages, wastage, Rainwater Harvesting
4. To Reduce Waste management through reduction of Food waste generation, Plastic/Paper/Metal waste generation and effective disposal
5. To Reduce the Carbon Footprint
6. Enhancement of University profile

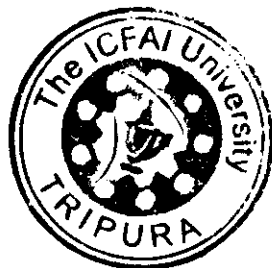

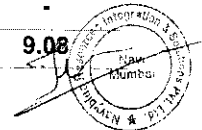

ENERGY AUDIT

BILLING ANALYSIS-

Audit team observed that the Electricity is supplied by state electricity board with 640 kW of connected load and the average monthly billing is INR 694067/-. The average kVA demand for the institute is 634 kVA and gross energy rate is 9.08 INR/kWh.

ENERGY CONSERVATION MEASURES

ENERGY CONSERVATION MEASURES TAKEN BY UNIVERSITY

1. This university has a 100 KW roof top on grid connected solar power plant at its campus. As per record this plant fulfils more than 11 % power requirements of this university related to total consumption of this university.
2. 23 nos. 40 W each, automatic solar lights are installed at different student resting rooms, open gymnasium, Main entrance gate, east side boundary wall and entrance of the boy's hostel.
3. 08 nos. 6 W each automatic solar lights are installed at electrical substations and pump house.
4. 04 nos. 300 W each automatic solar lights fixtures are installed at north and east site boundary wall in the ICFAI campus.
5. Replaced 70 nos. 150 W each sodium vapor light fixtures for area illumination purpose from various sites of campus with the 50 nos. 80 W LED Flood light fixtures and Post top light fixtures. Approximately 60 % electric consumption reduces than the previous consumption.
6. Hostels corridors, common space of the hostels, Mess and canteen sites blocks and partly main academic toilets blocks 36 W 560 nos. CFL lights replaced with (9- 12) W 300 nos. LED lamp. Approximately 80 % electric consumption reduce than the previous consumption
7. 140 no 36 W Compact fluorescent lamp (CFL) converted into 90 nos.20 W LED Fixtures in main Academic corridors. Approximately 64 % Electric consumption reduce by this.
8. 600 nos. 40 W conventional tubes light converted into 370 nos. 20 W LED T8 glass tube light fixtures in class room & hostels. Approximately 70 % electric consumption reduces than the previous consumption.
9. 90 nos. 40 W tubular fluorescent lamp converted into 36 no 9 W LED lamp .This electrical consumption of walk way illumination purpose approximately 90 % reduces by compared to the previous electrical consumption.
10. 103 nos. 80 w conventional ceiling fan converted into 103 no 28 W BLDC ceiling fan. Approximately 65 % electric consumption reduces than the previous electric power consumption.
11. 700 nos. 80 W conventional ceiling fans converted into 700 nos. 24 W BLDC ceiling fan. Approximately 65 % electric consumption reduces than the previous electric power consumption.
12. In three places human sensed LED lights are installed. This operates with human sensation.
13. This University always emphasizes on power savings and power conservation. In this process different awareness boards / signets are fitted in all the class rooms and other places directing all to switch off lights, fans and other electrical gadgets not in Use. The university given direction to all the maintenance and cleaning staff members to be an extra vigilant for switching off electrical gadgets when not in use.
14. This year university purchased a large numbers of LED light fixtures, LED lamps to replace conventional lights.
15. For power savings most of the Air conditioners installed in various places of the campus are now replaced with 5 star rating inverter AC.

ENERGY SAVINGS BY REPLACING EXISTING CEILING FAN BY BLDC FAN

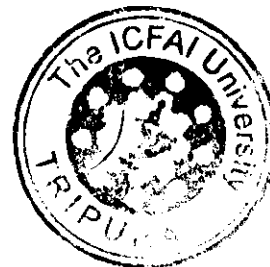

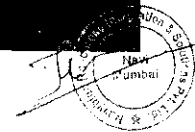

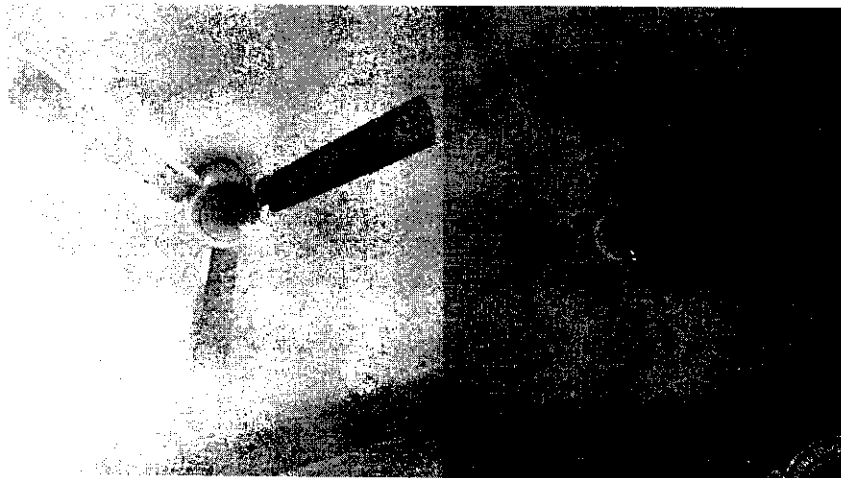

Observation- It is observed that at present facility have conventional Fans which consumes almost double the energy than energy efficient BLDC Fans.

Recommendation- it is recommended to replace the old fans with new energy efficient BLDC Fans, the energy savings potential along with cost benefit analysis mentioned in the table below.

REPLACE ELECTRIC GEYSER WITH SOLAR WATER HEATER

Observation: The Campus is using Electric Geyser as a source of Hot Water which consumes almost 11% of the electricity.

Recommendation: It is recommended to replace these electric geysers with Solar Water Heater to save energy cost as well as to reduce CO₂ emissions.

Table 7 Replace Electric Geyser with Solar Water Heater

ENERGY GENERATION BY INSTALLING SOLAR PV POWER PLANT

University has installed 100 kWp Rooftop Solar PV Plant in the campus during 2019-20. It is proposed to install a 400 kWp Grid Solar PV rooftop system to get green energy from solar. Here is the cost benefit analysis of the same.

Table 8 Solar PV Feasibility

Waste Management:

1. Bio Waste – Mostly Food Waste is generated from the cooked food at the campus in the canteen. It is proposed to install Bio Gas plant in the campus to generate Bio Gas from the food waste, which can be used in the Food Cooking
2. Non-Bio Waste – Plastic Bottles / Waste Paper / Cardboards/ Batteries etc.
3. Biomedical Waste- The University has MoU with M/S MEDICARE ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT PVT. LTD., Agartala which is collecting the biomedical wastes from the University for necessary disposal or recycling.

Non- biodegradable waste, which cannot be decomposed by biological processes, is called non-biodegradable waste. These are of two types - Recyclable: waste having economic values but destined for disposal can be recovered and reused along with their energy value. e.g. Plastic, paper, old cloth etc. Non-recyclable: waste which do not have economic value of recovery. e.g. Carbon paper, thermo coal, tetra packs etc. Disposal of non-biodegradable waste is a major concern, not just plastic, a variety of waste being accumulated. There are a few ways to help non-biodegradable waste management. The impact of non-biodegradable waste on the environment and also focus on its safe disposal for sustainable environment.

Present Status: Dust bins were provided for the waste disposal the same is collected daily once and handed over the Municipal corporation.

4. E Waste Management

Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment (WEEE) or E-waste is one of the fastest growing waste streams in the world. In developed countries, it equals 1% of total solid waste on an average. In developing countries, it ranges from 0.01% to 1% of the total municipal solid waste generation. In countries like China and India, though annual generation per capita is less than 1 kg, it is growing at an exponential pace.

Brief Of The Program:

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

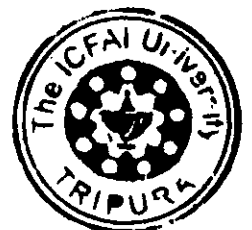

Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India, Tripura (www.iutripura.edu.in) popularly known as The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty-two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial technological and legal challenges and business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives.

Objectives of the Program:

- ❖ To introduce students to the curriculum, syllabus, key topics, assignments, and assessment methods, ensuring they understand what is required for successful completion of the course.
- ❖ To acquaint students with available academic resources, such as libraries, tutoring centers, online platforms, and student support services, helping them utilize these tools effectively throughout their studies.
- ❖ To make the students aware of the rule, regulations, guidelines, ERP, code of conduct and scholarship and placement opportunities of the institutes,
- ❖ To encourage interaction among students, faculty, and staff, fostering a sense of belonging, collaboration, and community within the course, which can enhance the overall learning experience.

Outcome of the Program:

- ❖ Students have a solid grasp of the course structure, expectations, deadlines, and grading policies, which helps them plan their studies effectively and avoid confusion later.
- ❖ Students are well-informed about the academic and support resources available e.g., libraries, online platforms, student services.
- ❖ By understanding the course content, schedule, and available support, students can feel more prepared and confident as they begin their academic journey, reducing anxiety and uncertainty.
- ❖ Students form initial connections with peers, faculty, and staff, fostering a sense of community that can lead to collaborative learning, peer support, and a positive academic experience throughout the course.

Summarization of the Program:

- ❖ On 7th August, 2024, an Orientation Program was organized by the Faculty of Management and Commerce, at Room No. 434, ICFAI University Tripura, for the students of B. Com, 1st Year. The sole motive of the orientation program was to make the students aware of the objectives and purpose of the program/Course. A brief introduction about the department, its curriculum and disciplinary rules was given by Prof. (Dr.) Sujit Deb, Dean of FMC as he welcomed the new students of B. Com.
- ❖ The entire course structure of the B. Com Program was discussed in details in this orientation program by Dr. Annesha Saha, Associate Professor & HOD, B. Com (H).
- ❖ After this, Prof. (Dr.) Sunil Kumar, Associate Professor & HOD of M. Com enlightened the students about the prospects of commerce education and opportunities.
- ❖ Our next speakers were Mr. Arnab Chakraborty and Mr. Sandeep Paul, from the Placement and Scholarship department of ICFAI University Tripura. They briefed about various scholarships available for the students to support their study and also about the placement procedure as well as how far our initiative for 100% placement is successful.
- ❖ Students were also addressed by Prof. (Dr.) Dipangshu Dev Chowdhury, Assistant Prof. of FMC, ICFAI University Tripura. He informed the students regarding the Disciplinary Rules & Regulations of the University and advised them to be punctual and to wear proper uniform. After the discussion registration and verification of the documents have been done by the faculties of FMC.
- ❖ In the next segment, the new commers of the B. Com course were introduced with ERP and its necessary uses and also its importance by Mr. Rakesh Debbarma, Admin Officer, FMC.
- ❖ Then Kaushik Roy, who is an Alumni of the department had a small interactive session with the freshers regarding his journey in the University as well as in the department and he motivated every new student with his inspiring words.
- ❖ Lastly, the program ended with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Tamladipta Sen, Assistant Professor, FMC.

Report on Orientation Program for Summer Internship Program (SIP)

Organized by: Faculty of Management and Commerce, ICFAI University Tripura

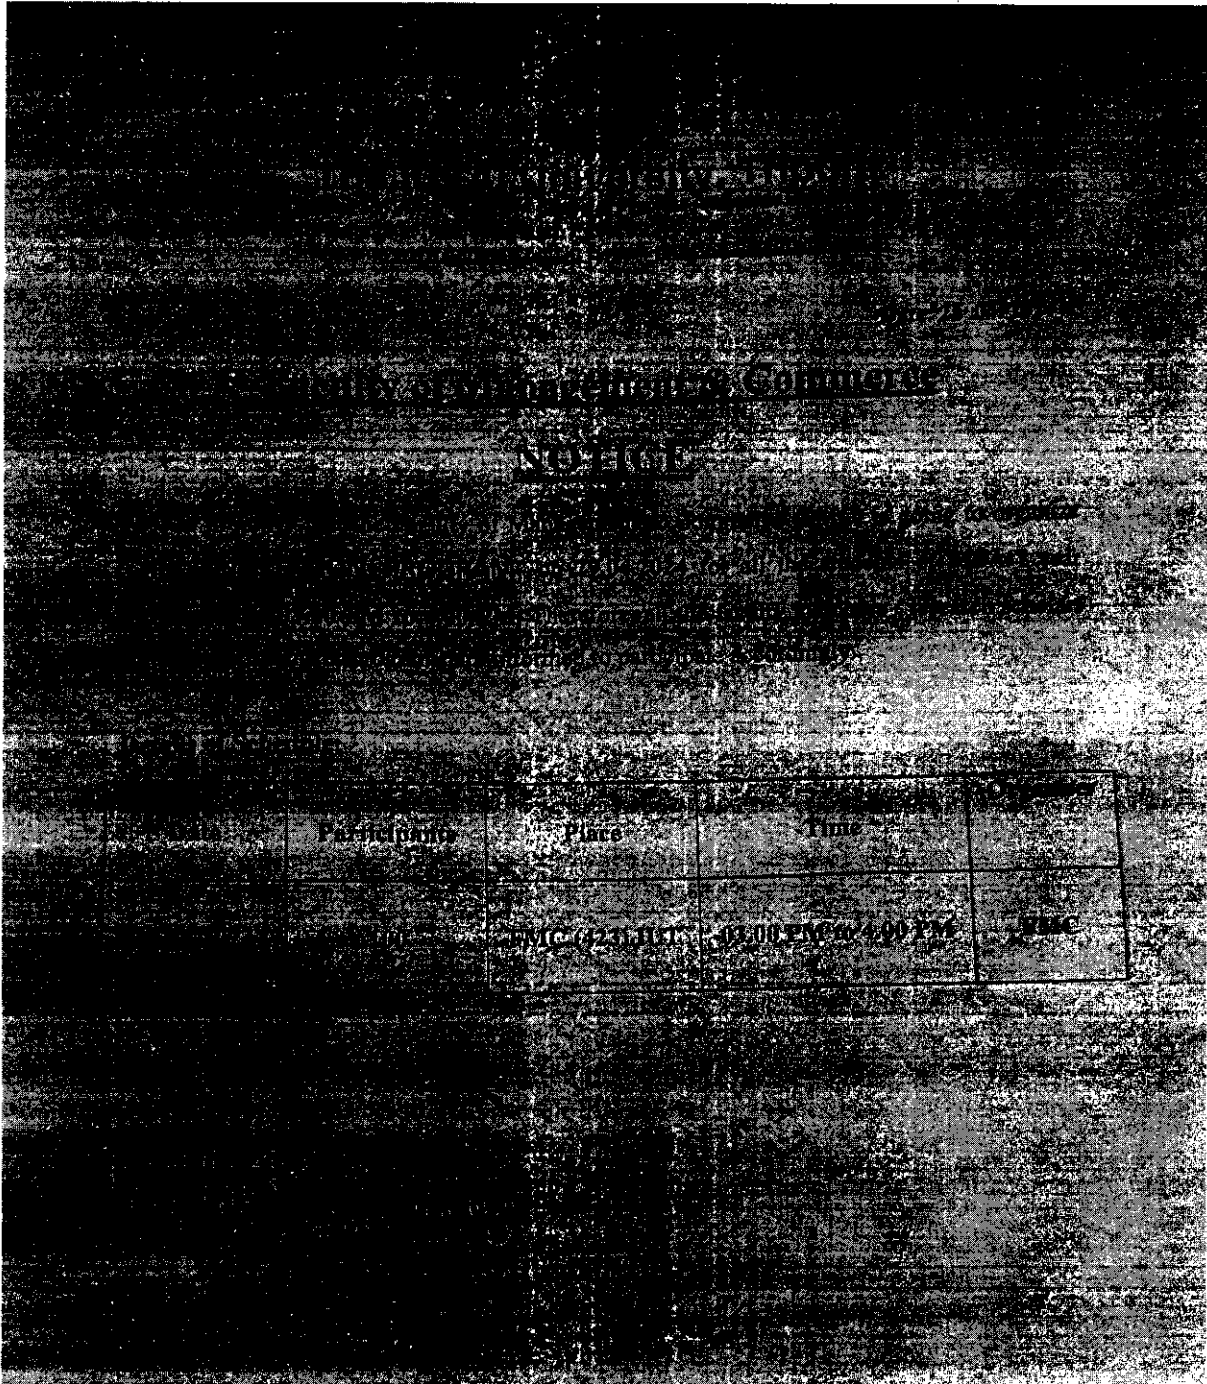

Date: 29th April 2024

The Faculty of Management and Commerce at ICFAI University Tripura conducted an Orientation Program on the Summer Internship Program (SIP) for MBA students on 29th April 2024. The event aimed to familiarize students with the significance of the SIP and its role in their academic and professional journey. The program featured distinguished speakers, including Professor Soumen Sanyal from IIM, Dean Dr. Sujit Deb, and Assistant Professor Dr. Trinankur Dey, who shared valuable insights into various aspects of the SIP. Professor Sanyal highlighted the pivotal role of the SIP in bridging the gap between academic learning and practical industry exposure, emphasizing the importance of applying theoretical knowledge to real-world business scenarios and encouraging students to actively network with professionals and mentors. Dr. Sujit Deb underscored the importance of developing critical skills such as problem-solving, decision-making, and leadership during the SIP, discussing its strategic relevance in shaping students' understanding of organizational structures and workflows while urging them to deliver measurable outcomes during their internships to enhance their resumes. Dr. Trinankur Dey elaborated on how the SIP serves as a platform for skill enhancement and personal growth, encouraging students to approach their internships with a positive mindset and a willingness to learn, and offering tips on professional etiquette, time management, and effective communication.

The program commenced with an inaugural speech by Dr. Sujit Deb, who welcomed the students and set the tone for the discussions. The speakers shared case studies and real-life examples to illustrate the practical applications of MBA concepts in corporate environments. Students actively engaged in a dynamic Q&A session, which addressed common concerns about internship expectations and challenges. Additionally, guidelines for selecting companies, setting goals, and documenting SIP experiences were provided. The orientation program successfully equipped the MBA students with essential knowledge and insights into the Summer Internship Program, emphasizing its critical role as part of the MBA curriculum to help students gain hands-on experience, develop industry-relevant skills, and prepare for future career opportunities. The Faculty of Management and Commerce at ICFAI University Tripura remains committed to providing students with opportunities for growth and learning through such initiatives, with this orientation program being a significant step in preparing students to excel in their upcoming internships.

Orientation Program of MBA 1st Year student
Faculty of Management & Commerce, (FMC), ICFAI University Tripura

An orientation program for the MBA 1st year students at the Faculty of Management & Commerce (FMC), ICFAI University Tripura, was held on 22/08/2023. The event was organized to familiarize the newly admitted students with the academic framework, resources, and opportunities available at the institute. The program featured a diverse lineup of esteemed speakers who shared their insights and expertise with the incoming students.

The event commenced with Dr. Sujit Deb, the Dean of FMC, who warmly welcomed the students and emphasized the institute's commitment to providing a holistic learning experience. Dr. Deb highlighted the curriculum structure, course offerings, and evaluation methodologies. He encouraged students to actively engage in their studies and make the most of the academic resources available to them. Dr. Subhashish Chatterjee, the Dean of Academic Affairs spoke about the importance of academic integrity, innovation, and leadership in the modern business landscape. Dr. Dhanaja Datta, the Dean of Research and Development, shed light on the significance of research and its role in enhancing industry knowledge and practices. He motivated the students to explore research opportunities and contribute to the advancement of their chosen field. Addressing the audience, Dr. Prasenjit Dasgupta shared insights into the industry trends and the evolving job market. He discussed the relevance of staying updated with the latest business developments and how it can benefit the students in their future careers. Prof. Sudip Bhattacharjee delivered a presentation on available scholarship opportunities, emphasizing the institute's dedication to supporting academic excellence. He elucidated the various scholarships on offer and provided guidance on how students could apply for them. Concluding the session, Mr. Sanjib Chakraborty, a representative from the placement cell, spoke about the vast array of placement opportunities awaiting the students. He highlighted the institute's strong industry connections and the support provided to students in securing internships and job placements.

The orientation program provided the students with a comprehensive overview of their journey ahead at FMC, ICFAI University Tripura. It not only acquainted them with the faculty and resources available but also inspired them to excel in their academic pursuits, engage in research, and seize the placement opportunities that lie ahead. The event set a positive tone for their academic journey and instilled a sense of enthusiasm and determination among the MBA 1st year students.

Program Objectives

- To provide training on outcome based teaching learning.
- To provide knowledge about paradigm shift in management teaching pedagogy.
- To impart the significance of management education, in the global and Indian context.

Brief of the Programme

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India, Tripura (www.iutripura.edu.in) popularly known as The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial, technological, legal challenges as well as business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives. It also provides exposure to real business problems and situations through industrial visits to different business sectors, case-studies and industrial interactions.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME:

- To provide training on outcome based teaching learning
- To provide knowledge about the paradigm shift in management teaching pedagogy.

- To impart the significance of management education, in the global and Indian context.

PROGRAMME OUTCOME:

- On Day 1 i.e., 10/06/2024; a two-hour session was held at the board room from 2.00pm to 4.00 pm. During the session an in-depth discussion took place between the Resource person; Prof. (Dr.) Chandrasekhar Chaudhari and the faculties of FMC identifying the major challenges and constraints that hinders the effective teaching and learning sessions. Added emphasis on the reasons for changing of curriculum was specified. Various important facets were disclosed by our resource person Prof. (Dr.) Chandrasekhar Chaudhari. For instance:

- ◆ Analysing the skill gaps
- ◆ Identifying the attributed of outgoing students
- ◆ Changing the pedagogy
- ◆ Focusing on experiential learning
- ◆ Experience based practical session
- ◆ And developing group learning

- On Day 2 i.e., 11/06/2024; evaluation of the syllabus was done and necessary modifications were prompted. The resource person suggested to incorporate more practical into the curriculum to male it experiential in nature i.e., 60% practical and 40% lecture. For ensuring the required modification of the syllabus, four separate groups were formed based on various heads like Finance & Accounting, Marketing, HR & Soft Skills and Economics & Statistics. Emphasis on how to implement experiential learning was given. Throughout the group discussion, the syllabus was analysed thoroughly and various practical based and experiential learning pedagogy was identified. For instance:

- Finance & Accounting: simulation, operational workout to visit different MF companies, TVM- RD, FD, EMI, insurance calculation (real life data calculation), insurance calculation, presentation, interpretation and team building.
- Marketing: market survey, role play, presentation and interpretation of data collected.
- HR & Soft Skills: video library, small group interaction and role playing.

- Economics & Statistics: market survey with demand and supply analysis along with statistical tests.
- On Day 3 i.e., 12/06/2024; Case study analysis was done. Mr. Rajarshi Majumder, Research Scholar, FMC has taught the case on “Succession Dilemma at Hamdard India”. In his session he has approached discussion method as he discussed the core of the case study. He divided the participants into two groups and provided eight questions which were needed to be presented. After 45 mins of group discussion the answers were presented. He further, summarized his session with all the ideas expressed by the participants after the group discussion relevant to the case study.
- On Day 4 i.e., 13/06/2024; Another Case study analysis was completed by Mr. Sudip Bhattacharjee, Assistant Professor, FMC on “Kanpur Confectioneries PVT Limited-1987”. In his session he has approached interactive teaching method for the over all discussion of the case study and problem-solving assessment. Finally, he concluded the case study with the overall perspective of the participants.
- On Day 5 i.e., 14/06/2024; The FDP concluded on day 5 with lot of transformed perspective on teaching pedagogy. Emphasis was given on the importance of case study being a tool for experiential learning and also on the different methods like interactive teaching method, discussion method, Role play method, Socratic method, and Reflective practice which can be opted to teach case study. Our Resource person stressed on the importance and prominence of experiential learning that will be important in the overall development of the management students including their interactive skills, presentation skills, knowledge etc.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

Institute of Chartered Financial Analysts of India, Tripura (www.iutripura.edu.in) popularly known as The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial technological and legal challenges and business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives.

OBJECTIVE OF THE WORKSHOP:

This online workshop is carefully designed for faculty members / research scholars/business executives across different domains of social sciences, engineering, economic sciences, and management to learn data analysis, research methodologies and their implementation through various statistical/econometric softwares. The prime objective of this programme is to equip the participants with the requisite knowledge for the selection of adequate statistical and econometric techniques, application of those research techniques, estimation of results using different statistical tools and econometric software, and interpretation of results. The resource persons include experts in different specialised areas across IITs / IIMs, and other institutes.

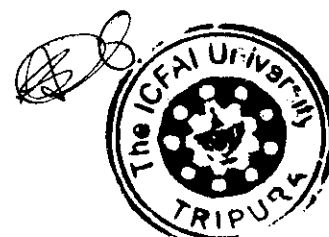

OUTCOME OF THE WORKSHOP:

The workshop will endow essential knowledge about research methodology along with its application in research. The participants will be provided with understanding to handle and manage the data with different statistical packages. With completion of the workshop they are expected to be able to understand, interpret, analyze and produce characteristic patterns between different data analysis techniques.

INTRODUCTION

The day of 15th August 1947 has been embossed in the golden history of India. It is the day when India got its freedom from 200 years of British rule. It was a hard and long struggle in which many freedom fighters and great men sacrificed their lives for our beloved motherland. India celebrates its Independence Day on the 15th of August every year. However, this year, the auspicious day is being celebrated as '77 Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav 2023'. Independence Day, called the Red-Letter Day in the history of our country, is celebrated as a national holiday throughout India. Independence day is a positive historical event for the country since we were free from British rule on this day. It unites diverse individuals all over the country. Unity in diversity is the fundamental path and strength of India. We feel pleased to be a part of the biggest majority-rule country on the planet, where we live in a democracy. Independence Day is an important day in the life of every Indian citizen. Year after year, it reminds us of our great freedom fighters who sacrificed and struggled their lives in order to free our Motherland from British rule. It reminds us of the great paragons, which were the foundation of the dream of a free India, envisioned and realised by the founding fathers.

Keeping this in mind, the students from ICFAI University Tripura had achieved the golden opportunity to pay their tribute by showing the artistic skills in Mohanpur Higher Secondary School. In front of a large audience and other reputed dignitaries, our students were able to participate in several cultural and artistic events and also various competitions securing for them prestigious awards and positions.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM

- Participation in this event will give students a great opportunity to participate in events of such National importance.
- Through this program students can show their unique talents in front of a large audience.
- It will increase the scope of holistic development of the personality of the students.
- These Programs shall help pupils to recognize the layers of meaning that exist in texts and contexts, to develop their knowledge of art and performance, conventions and their sense of getting prepared in front of a vast audience.

NO OF PARTICIPANTS

Students from FLA department along with different departments have participated in this event

FLA = 3 students

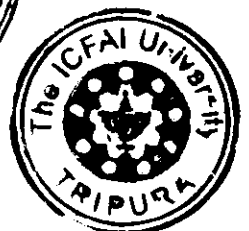

D Ed Special = 2 students

B. Ed. = 3 students

MBA = 1 student

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM

- Students have understood their duties & responsibilities for the nation.
- Participated students with various life skills like teamwork, compassion, cooperation and collaboration.
- Children also learned about taking constructive criticism and feedback in a way that helps them become better individuals.
- The use of such cultural art forms of immense variety also accelerated personality development among students.

EVENT REPORT ON- Book Review Writing

TITLE OF THE EVENT: Book-Review Writing

DATE OF THE EVENT: October 12, 2023

VENUE: Classroom ACCB302

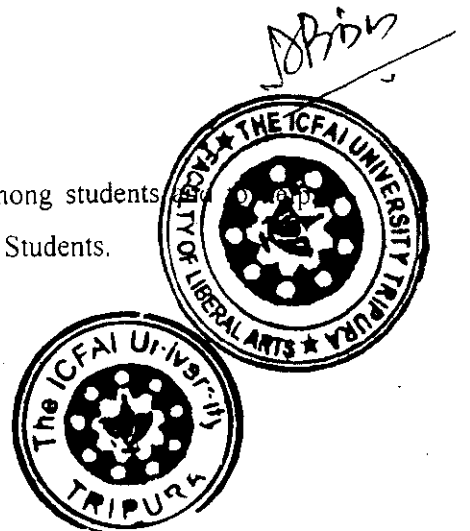

CONDUCTED BY: Literary Committee, Faculty of Liberal Arts

INTRODUCTION: A book review is a description and analysis of a book. The purpose of a book review is to heighten your understanding of a book and demonstrate an understanding of deeper meaning within a book. The four stages of writing a book review are: introducing the book, outlining its contents, highlighting parts of the book by selecting particular chapters or themes, and giving a detailed evaluation. It provides a summary of the content, assesses the value of the book, and recommends it (or not) to other potential readers. A book report is an objective summary of the main ideas and arguments that the book's author has presented.

A Book Review Event was conducted on 12th Oct, 2023 by the Literary Committee, Faculty of Liberal Arts, ICFAI University Tripura from 11.00 AM onwards. The Main objective of the event was to share the view of the book read and encourage the reading habit of the students. The books taken for review were Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen, The Stranger Trilogy by Novoneel Chakraborty, Smokes and Whiskey by Tejaswini Divya Nayak. Faculties and Students of various departments actively registered for the book review event a total of 14 participants involved in the event.

OBJECTIVE:

Book review competition will inculcate the reading habit among students enhance the thinking, analyzing and summarizing capacities of Students.

The following points to be noted to analyse a book review

1. How well does the book fulfill the promises the author makes in the preface and introduction?
2. How effective is the book's methodology?
3. How effectively does the book make its arguments?
4. How persuasive is the evidence?
5. For its audience, what are the book's strengths?
6. How clearly is the book written?

ACTIVITY: Book review Competition has been organized on October 12, 2023 at 11:00 am.

The students were asked to present book review on Books of their choice and interest i.e. fiction, biography, autobiography, books on travel experience or any other book except novel (not specifically related to any curriculum subject). There were 14 participants from B.A English Honours 2nd year Students, to present book review on select books. The students & faculty of literary Committee, Faculty of Liberal Arts, attended the competition in huge number.

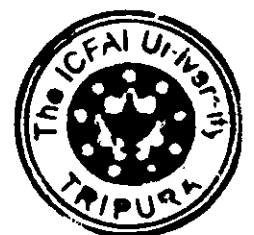

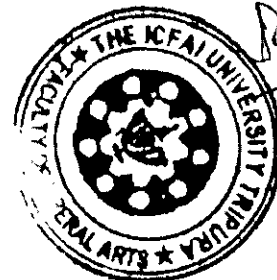

EVENT OUTCOME: To acquaint students about:

- 1) Central idea of book
- 2) Evaluation of book
- 3) Understanding how author handled subject.

Students will able to

- 1) Discuss the finding
- 2) Assess the strength and weakness of the book
- 3) Opine about the thoughts of author

Inauguration of FLA Newsletter Memoir Bulletin Volume 3

DATE: 21.11.2023. TIME: 10 - 10.30 am

VENUE: Ground Floor, Main Academic Block, The ICFAI University, Tripura

INTRODUCTION:

The FLA Newsletter MEMOIR BULLETIN provides a platform to students, ex-students research scholars and faculty members of the Faculty of Liberal Arts, The ICFAI University Tripura to showcase their creative and academic pursuits through various modes of expression. Since its inception in 2022, the Newsletter has aimed to highlight the skills and abilities of the members of FLA, IUT by creating diverse verticals of contribution like Scripta (articles/ essays/ creative writings), Momenta (photographs), Da Vinci Corner (Paintings), Talents, Achievements or the Games Section. The Academic Year 2023-24 has been the inauguration and publication the two latest volumes of the Newsletter through an array of encouraging events.

On 21st November, 2023 the FLA family was extremely gratified to have a very special guest, the Honourable Governor of Tripura, Shri Indrasena Reddy Nallu, doing the honours of inaugurating the highlights of the 3rd Volume of the FLA Newsletter, in a short but momentous event, held at the Ground Floor, Main Academic Block, The ICFAI University, Tripura.

Objectives

- The event aimed to foreground the talents of the FLA fraternity.
- Such exposure and recognition is meant to encourage students and teachers in their cultural pursuits.
- It is further aimed to motivate students to undertake more creative projects in future.

Activity

Honourable Governor of Tripura, Shri Indrasena Reddy Nallu, graced the occasion with his presence and did the honours of inaugurating the highlights of the 3rd Volume of the FLA Newsletter, in the form of a Wall Magazine, at the Ground Floor, Main Academic Block, The ICFAI University, Tripura.

The event took place in the presence of Prof. Mousumi Biswas, Principal, FLA; the Faculty members of the FLA Newsletter Committee – Dr. Urmil Sengupta, Prof. Indrani Bandopadhyay, Prof. Guriya Paul and Mr. Manish Sharma - and the team of student volunteers. The words of appreciation of Sri Reddy emerged to be a huge source of inspiration for the students to work harder for the publication of the future volumes of the Newsletter.

Programme Schedule:

10 - 10.05 am- Welcome Speech delivered by Prof. Mousumi Biswas, Principal, FLA
10.05- 10.20 am: Speech delivered by the Honourable Governor
10.20- 10.30 am: Inauguration of Memoir Bulletin Volume 3

Outcome

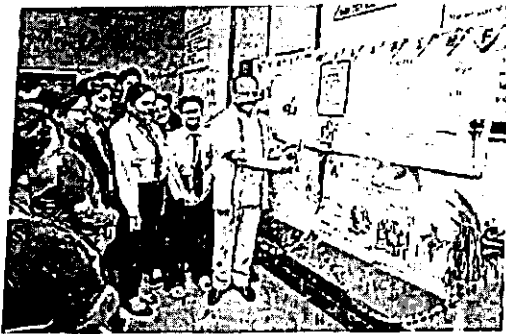

- The most important outcome of the event was the recognition and the eventual motivation it bestowed upon those working arduously to make the Newsletter worthwhile.
- The presence and the appreciation of the Guest of Honour served as a huge source of encouragement for the teachers and the students of FLA.
- It is further laid the foundations of some appreciable collaborations, teamwork and creative projects for the eventual publication of Memoir Bulletin Volume 3 and 4 in March-April 2024.

Attendees / Participants:

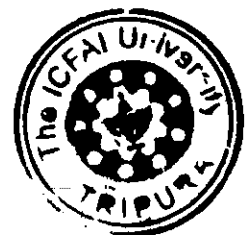

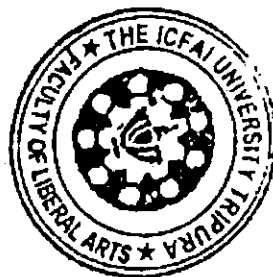

Along with the faculty members of FLA, the student volunteers of the Newsletter Committee were also present at the event. (Attendance sheet is attached)

A REPORT ON CULTURAL EVENT ON "Yoga Workshop" ORGANIZED BY THE FACULTY OF LIBERAL ARTS

DATE- 01/12/2023

TIME- 10.00 A.M - 11:00.AM

VENUE- Yoga Hall, B.Ed Building

INTRODUCTION:

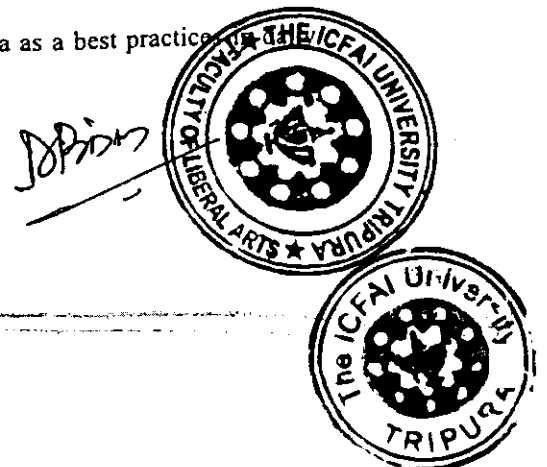

A few minutes of Yoga during the day can be a great way to get rid of stress that accumulates daily, in both, body and the mind. Yoga postures, Pranayama and meditation are effective techniques to release stress. Meditation is relaxation and rejuvenates the body and mind. With this aim in mind, a workshop was organised on 1st of December, 2023, for the students of BA English (H) 3rd Year. The yoga instructor, Prof. Prasenjit Majumder, from Faculty of Physical Education, ICFAI University Tripura took yoga session with great dedication. Apart from students, few teachers also took interest and participated with full interest, enthusiasm and eagerness.

The session began by seeking the blessings of the Almighty. Asanas starting with warming up and stretching were followed by a series of Padmasanas, Sukhasana, Tadasana, Bhujang Asana and ending with Shavasana. Exercises for relieving stress, reducing joint pain and enhancing the flexibility of the back were also done for the benefit of the teachers.

At last, professors motivated the students and conveyed the importance of making yoga an integral part of their daily life by extending the practice of yoga beyond the mat. The session concluded with an interactive session between the instructor and the students in which the queries of the students were addressed satisfactorily. The session was very refreshing, reviving and relaxing.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM:

- To motivate students for Yoga practices and healthy life
- Through this cultural event, a batch of students were introduced to cultural environment of the department
- To motivate students in participating on extra-curriculum activities related to special occasion in future
- To find valuable insights from the resource person about yoga as a best practice in life.

NO OF PARTICIPANTS:

25 students have participated in the mentioned workshop on Yoga from BA English (II) 3rd Year batch of Faculty of Liberal Arts. Besides, around 5 Faculties from different discipline have attended the event.

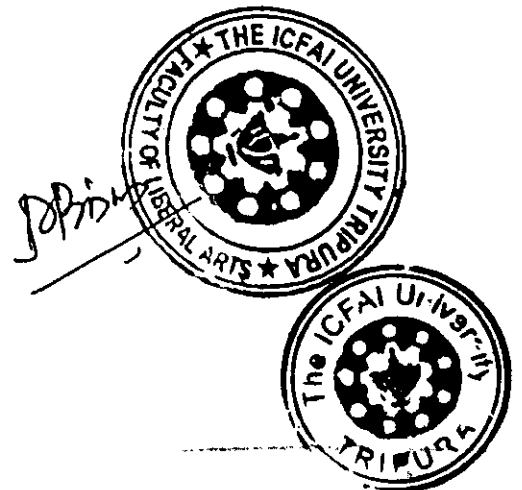

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

- Students learned about the importance of Yoga in daily life.
- Students queries were addressed satisfactorily by the respected resource person.
- The event was in essence, keeping with the spirit of Liberal Arts became a fruitful one from all angles.

FACULTY OF LIBERAL ARTS

Report on

“An Institutional workshop on Self Defense Techniques”

On the eve of Swami Vivekananda Jayanti / National Youth Day

Date:- 12th Jan 2024 Venue:- IUT Play Ground

INTRODUCTION

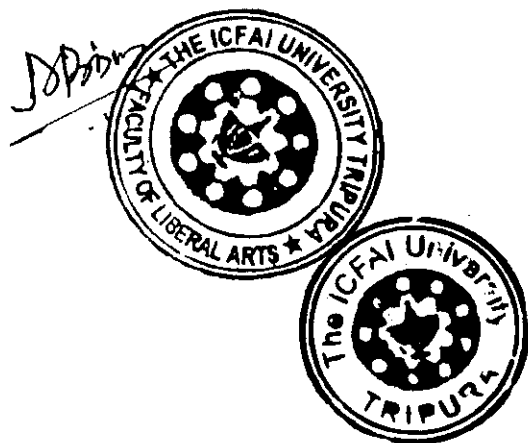

Self-defense has been a familiar concept to everyone since childhood. We are all acutely aware of the current state of Indian society and the worsening condition of Indian women within it. The sense of unease is as strong as the danger-filled environment. Assailants, whose cruelty knows no bounds, pose a threat to individuals of all ages, from young toddlers to older men and women. It is essential for everyone to learn self-defense skills to protect themselves and fight for their lives without relying on weapons. It is our collective responsibility to become our own best protectors. As the saying goes, “Self-defense is not only our right, it is our duty.” – Ronald Reagan.

With this purpose, our Department Faculty of Liberal Arts had organized a workshop on Self Defense Techniques. Students from different departments participate in this workshop.

INAUGURAL SESSION

The workshop started with an inaugural speech by Mr. Uttam Acharjee (Self Defense Expert). He highlighted the key points why such kinds of workshops are required to sensitize our girl child/students to self-protect themselves in public places as well as at home. He also pointed out that this is the demand of the hour as we can relate ourselves to the news items of domestic violence, eve-teasing cases and other severe forms of violence against women and children which is pouring in on a day to day basis. He pointed out why it is necessary to attend and train oneself with this kind of workshop and training programmes. He said that having knowledge about self defense techniques not only helps defend but also it builds confidence in oneself. Mr. Uttam Acharjee demonstrates the different techniques Mr. Deepjoy Das, Ranajit Singha, Johan Tripura, Ms. Hantela Kisteya Tripura, Soni Datta, Rajashree Debnath, Kabita Kalai help him also to communicate with students.

He discusses so many techniques like Get Loud and Push back, how to kick, Movements, Punch, so many things.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM

A self-defense workshop for university students should aim to equip them with practical skills, knowledge, and mindset to ensure their safety and well-being. Here are five crucial objectives such a workshop should focus on:

- Awareness and Prevention: Teach students to recognize potentially dangerous situations and how to avoid them whenever possible. This includes understanding personal boundaries, recognizing warning signs of aggression, and practicing situational awareness in various environments.
- Assertiveness and Boundary Setting: Empower students to assertively communicate their boundaries and say no to unwanted advances or threats. Provide techniques for assertive verbal communication and protection strategies to defuse potentially volatile situations.
- Physical Techniques for Self-Defense: Teach students practical self-defense techniques that are effective in real-life situations, focusing on simple yet powerful moves that target vulnerable areas of the attacker's body. Techniques should include strikes, blocks, escapes from grabs, and ground defense.
- Confidence Building: Build students' confidence in their ability to defend themselves by providing opportunities for practice and simulated scenarios. Encourage them to trust their instincts and make quick decisions under pressure.
- Legal and Ethical Considerations: Educate students about the legal and ethical aspects of self-defense, including the concept of proportionality in using force, understanding the laws regarding self-defense in their jurisdiction, and the potential consequences of their actions. Emphasize the importance of using self-defense techniques responsibly and as a last resort.

By addressing these objectives, a self-defense workshop for university students can empower them with the skills and knowledge needed to stay safe and confident in various situations they may encounter both on and off campus.

OUTCOMES OF THE PROGRAM

- Increased Confidence: Students will gain confidence in their ability to protect themselves in potentially threatening situations. This confidence extends beyond physical techniques and encompasses assertiveness, awareness, and decision-making skills.
- Improved Physical Skills: Students will learn practical self-defense techniques that can be applied effectively in real-life situations. These skills may include strikes, blocks, escapes from grabs, and ground defense, empowering students to respond effectively if they are ever attacked.
- Enhanced Situational Awareness: Students will develop a heightened awareness of their surroundings and the ability to recognize and avoid potential threats before they escalate. This includes understanding body language cues, assessing environmental risks, and recognizing the signs of potential danger.
- Empowerment and Empathy: Through self-defense training, students will develop a sense of empowerment and autonomy over their own safety. This empowerment is not only physical but also emotional and psychological, fostering a greater sense of self-reliance and resilience. Additionally, self-defense training can cultivate empathy and a deeper understanding of the importance of respecting boundaries and consent.
- Understanding of Legal and Ethical Considerations: Students will gain knowledge of the legal and ethical aspects of self-defense, including the laws governing the use of force in their jurisdiction and the importance of using proportionate force and defence techniques. This understanding enables students to make informed decisions and act responsibly in self-defense situations, minimizing the risk of legal repercussions.

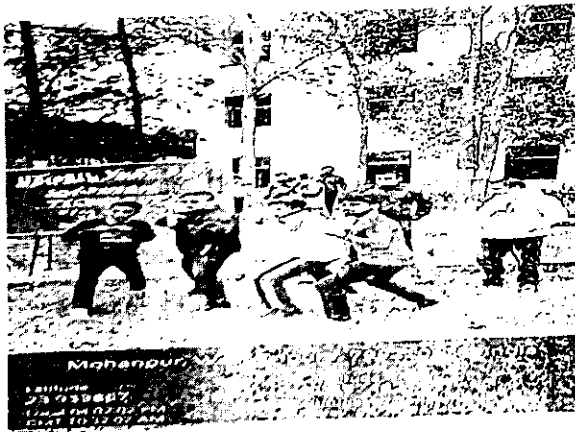

PARTICIPANTS

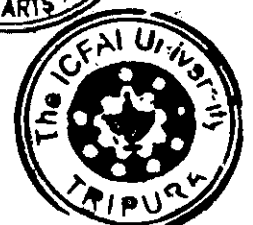

Faculty members and Students from different departments participated in this workshop. The Dean, Academic Affair, The ICAFI University, Tripura Prof.(Dr.) Subhasish Chaterjee, and the Principal, FLA Prof. Mousumi Biswas attended the workshop.

Conclusion

The vote of thanks was delivered by Prof. Dipsundar Datta (FLA), expressing his gratitude to Mr. Uttam Acharjee and his team for successful completion of the workshop.

INTRODUCTION

A Two day national seminar on Role of Manikya Dynasty in building Modern Tripura was organized by Swami Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya, Mohanpur, Tripura and The ICFAI University Tripura in collaboration with the Indian council of Historical Research (ICHR) New Delhi and in academic cooperation with Bharatiya Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Tripura, on 12 -13 January, 2024. It was conducted as a MOU activity where both of the colleges jointly organized the program.

Manikya Dynasty is the root of developed Tripura. The modern age of Tripura started with the reign of Maharaja Bir Chandra Manikya. He was a great enthusiast of art, culture and literature. During his reign, the modernization of Tripura happened in terms of education, law and administration, land and other social reforms. The different states of North East zone of India is connected to each other through bonds of some common cultural heritage and demographic identity. A cultural team from the Faculty of Liberal Arts, IUT, therefore, took active initiative to participate in a cultural program as a part of this seminar to showcase the diverse cultures of the seven sister states of North-East India.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM

Participation in this event will provide the students with a rare exposure and give them an opportunity to meet different students from different colleges.

Through this program students can showcase their unique talents in front of an esteemed audience.

It will result in a holistic development of the personality of the students while enriching their knowledge of their own history and culture.

These Programs help students to recognize the layers of meaning that exist in texts and contexts, to develop their knowledge of Dance conventions and their sense of audience.

NO OF PARTICIPANTS

Students from FLA, and the FOSE department had participated in that event. The total participation is 10 in number.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM

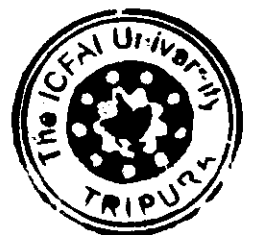

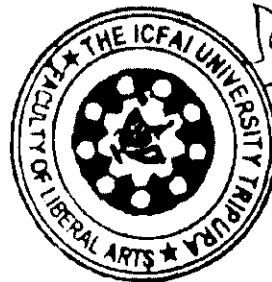

It imparted students with various life skills like teamwork, compassion, cooperation and collaboration.

Children also learned accept taking constructive criticism and feedback in a way that helps them become better individuals.

The use of indigenous art forms also accelerated personality development in students.

Through this program students explored different cultures of North East India.

From this program students have acquired a consolidated idea about the Manikya Dynasty and their contribution to modern Tripura.

REPORT ON THE THEATER WORKSHOP
ON THE OCCASION OF THE WORLD THEATRE DAY
ORGANIZED BY

Swami Vivekananda College, Mohanpur, Tripura and The ICFAI University Tripura

Name of Event: Post celebration of World Theatre Day.

Date- 04/04/ 2024

VENUE: ICFAI University Tripura, Auditorium.

INTRODUCTION

The World Theatre Day is celebrated as a movement, but later on it was celebrated to give a fresh direction and meaning to life as theater has a pertinent role to play in one's life with its healthy effect on the human society. since most of the themes have a strong bonding with the real life. Theater allows us to immerse ourselves in a story as it happens live, right in front of our eyes, with real people going through it. It gives us the chance to put ourselves in those characters' shoes and to feel what they feel. It improves voice projection, articulation, fluency of language, and persuasive speech. The primary aim of this workshop is to offer students a holistic theater education, covering acting techniques, stagecraft, and collaborative creativity. The workshop is designed to encourage active participation, skill development, and the practical application of learned concepts into a culminating Theatre Production. To celebrate the "World Theatre Day" which is held on 27th March, Faculty of Liberal Arts, conducted a post celebration as a theater workshop on the 4th of April 2024. The students of ICFAI University, Tripura, and Swami Vivekananda College, Mohanpur jointly participated in that program. The program comes under COO activity in both of these institutions. Sri. Sanjoy Kar, well known theater activist from Agartala, Tripura was the resource person for the workshop.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM

Participation in this event will provide the students with a rare exposure and give them an opportunity to meet different students from different colleges.

Through this program students can understand about the different aspects of theater and drama.

This theater workshop will make holistic development of the personality of the students while enriching their knowledge in different techniques of Drama and theater.

— These workshops help students to recognize the layers of meaning that exist in texts and contexts, to develop their knowledge of Dance conventions and their sense of audience.

NO OF PARTICIPANTS

NOTICE

Ref. No. IUT FLA/NT/24024

Date: 22.04.2024

This is to inform students of MA 1st year that as part of the of Internal II(Comprehensives, May 24) for Indian Writing in English (ENG 442) they need to translate 5 poems or 2 prose writings from local languages to English as an exercise of Text Translation which formed a part of the curricular corpus.

You are advised and encouraged to contact local authors of Tripura, to show them your translations of their published works which may be edited and/or amended by the authors themselves to their satisfaction favouring acquisition of a consent letter /translation agreement from the authors.

You are then advised to send the translations and other necessary details to Dr. Gitanjali. This will help transition to blended mode of learning, translation exercises and proximity with the literary intellectuals of present day Tripura.

For further queries, do feel free to contact Dr. Gitanjali Roy.

EVENT REPORT ON- Translation of poem/ prose of Tripura authors

TITLE OF THE EVENT: Translation of published works (poem or prose) by authors of Tripura

DATE & TIME: End-term internal assessment (Internal II)

May 2024.

VENUE: Assignment submitted by students through mail.

INTRODUCTION: Translation of texts was taught as part of their curriculum- Indian Writing in English (ENG442). Students were asked to select an author of their choice and to collect their published works (5 poems or 2 prose writing). They were instructed to select poems written in any language other than English. They would then translate the text into English, get it checked by the authors, make necessary changes if the authors want them to make correction. After that they would sign a consent letter translation agreement form by the authors and submit the assignment through mail to the course instructor Dr. Gitanjali Roy.

- OBJECTIVE:
1. To motivate the students for translation activities as part of their academic learning.
 2. To initiate a blended mode of learning.
 3. To enhance their knowledge on Tripura literature and authors.
 4. To help them translate.
 5. To explore talented writers from Tripura and to interact with them.

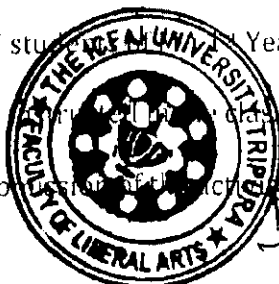

ACTIVITY: Students approached authors and have translated the published works of renowned authors belonging to Tripura.

EVENT OUTCOME: Students took keen interest on the assessment and did the translation in English.

ATTENDANCE OF THE PARTICIPANTS: 87 students of 1st Year.

BROCHURE OF THE EVENT: Students were informed in the classroom.

INTRODUCTION:

We are living in an information society where one encounters information right from morning till night. Information has become a commodity and a huge amount of information is available around us at just a click away. However, just the availability of the information does not necessarily mean that these are quality information. Here, comes the importance of nurturing the Information Literacy skills of students so that they can be a better consumer of information. These interventional workshops are conducted in different universities of Tripura to tackle the issues related to abundance and multifaceted nature of information. The agenda of the workshop is to equip the students to be an efficient user of information.

ICFAI has replaced CRT monitors with LED monitors, which use only about a third to one half the energy of a CRT. <input type="checkbox"/> Sub-meters were installed in select locations throughout campus to better account for energy use and determine the origins of energy usage issues. <input type="checkbox"/> Through several campaign programmes by the university it has been successfully implemented that during off-periods all the electric fixtures in the class rooms remain at switch off mode. Moreover, all the teaching and non-teaching staffs also maintain the same responsibility at their respective offices. <input type="checkbox"/> Installed 100kW rooftop solar plant in association with Tripura Renewable Energy Development Agency (TREDA, Govt. of Tripura). <input type="checkbox"/> Along with this, the present 33kV in-house substation is also being serviced by the experts on regular basis to ensure minimum reactive power loss. <input type="checkbox"/> The installation of automatic water fixtures in bathrooms throughout campus saves water as well as the electricity used in heating wasted water <input type="checkbox"/> Introduction to ERP systems for all official and academic works and its successful implementation has lowered the use of papers up to 75%. The students' admission and registration programme is also being done through online facilities.

- ! The 100% free wifi campus has also encouraged the students the collection of study materials and submission of assignments without using much of papers nowadays.
- ! All University offices, including student computer labs, are only permitted to purchase recycled paper (minimum 25% recycled paper) for printers and copy machines.
- ! The ICFAI University has adopted guidelines for buying greener electronics, disposing of "e-waste" and so called “take-back” recycling, which places the burden of e-waste recycling and disposal.
- ! Water from various disposal points is recycled through water treatment plant and is utilized in plantation activities in the campus.
- ! The university maintains cleanliness in the campus with top most priority by handling all the dirt and disposals through proper garbage management.
- ! Initiatives have been taken to turn the campus into a plastic free zone in the near future with several awareness programmes.
- ! The proper initiatives for plantation and its regular maintenance have turned the entire campus into a lush green campus.

Name of the Event: 5 Days Multidisciplinary Faculty Development Program (FDP) On "Recent trends in Technology".

Speakers: 1. Dr. Aparna Nath, Professor & HOD, Physics Department, NIT Agartala, 2. Dr. Bijoy Kumar Upadhaya, Professor, TIT Agartala, 3. Mr. Bapi Saha, Cyber Forensic Digital Analyst, Head Cyber Forensics Division at SFSL Tripura, 4. and 5. Dr. Sambhu Nath Pradhan, Associate Professor, NIT Agartala.

Objective:

- ② To impart know how about the recent developments in the industry.
- ② To give an idea on the recent global industry trends.
- ② Discussion on the various immerging fields in the industry.
- ② To give an idea on how industry sector works globally.

Organized by: Department of Electrical Engineering (EE), ICFAI University Tripura

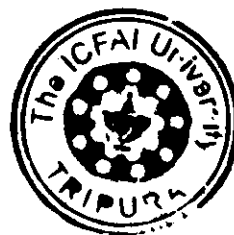

Date: July 3rd – 7th, July 2023

Number of participant Faculty and Technical Staff: 40

Mode: offline

Speaker (Details): Dr Aparna Nath completed her MSC in Physics from Guwahati University, Assam. Thereafter madam completed her Ph.D in physics and got her PH.D degree awarded collaboratively by REC Silchar and North Bengal University. Her Topic was "Studies of Structure and Properties of Liquid Crystals". Currently, Dr. Aparna Nath is a Professor & the HOD of Physics Department, NIT Agartala.

Dr Bijoy Kumar Upadhay has a bachelors and masters in Electronics and Communication. He completed his Ph.D from Jadavpur University. He has been conferred the prestigious "Shikshak Sammanana" award in 2022 by School Education Department, Govt. of Tripura. Currently, Dr. Bijoy Kumar Upadhaya is a Professor in the Department of Electronics and Communication, TIT Agartala

Mr. Bapi Saha has bachelors in Computer Science and Engineering from NIT Agartala and a masters in Computer Science and Engineering from Tripura University. Thereafter he has a PG Diploma in Cyber Law, Cyber Crime and Digital Forensics from National Law Institute University Bhopal. He is skilled in Computer Forensics, Mobile phone Forensics, Image/Video Forensics, Network Forensics and Experienced in handling a multitude of Digital Forensics tools (like EnCase, Magnet Axiom, FTK, XRY, UFED, Oxygen, Mobiledit, Passware, Forensic splorer, OS Forensics, DVR Examiner, Intella, Foelcar, XI Social discovery and many more). Mr Bapi Saha is truly demonstrating the application of Computer Science in forensics. Currently Mr. Bapi Saha is a Cyber Forensic Digital Analyst and Head of Cyber Forensics Division at SFSL Tripura.

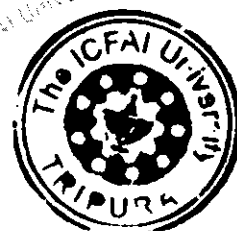

Dr. Arvind Kumar Jain has a bachelors in Electrical Engineering from Government Engineering College, Jabalpur, a masters in Power and Control" from Department of Electrical Engineering, Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur and Ph. D. in Power System from Department of Electrical Engineering, Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur. He was awarded the POSOCO Power System Award-2014 jointly by Power System Operation and Control Corporation (an ancillary of Power grid Corporation India Limited) and Indian Institute of Technology Delhi. He also received Madhya Pradesh Council of Science and Technology (MPCST) Bhopal and SRIJAN award for helping students to achieve Academic excellence. He is also a Senior member IEEE.

Dr Sambhu Nath Pradhan completed his bachelors in Electronics and communication Engineering from Kalyani Govt. Engineering College, his masters in Digital Systems and Instrumentation from IEST Shibpur earstwhile known as Bengal Engineering and Science University, and Ph. D. in VLSI Design from IIT Kharagpur. He has astudents occupying high positions in companies like Intel. Dr. Sambhu Nath Pradhan has one of the most advanced VLSI Design and Research Labs in entire India. Dr Sambhu Nath Pradhan has also successfully executed a no of high end projects from organizations like Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology and ISRO. He has a number of SCI publications including IEEE Transactions, IET, IJE and Integration-The VLSI Journal.

Outcome:

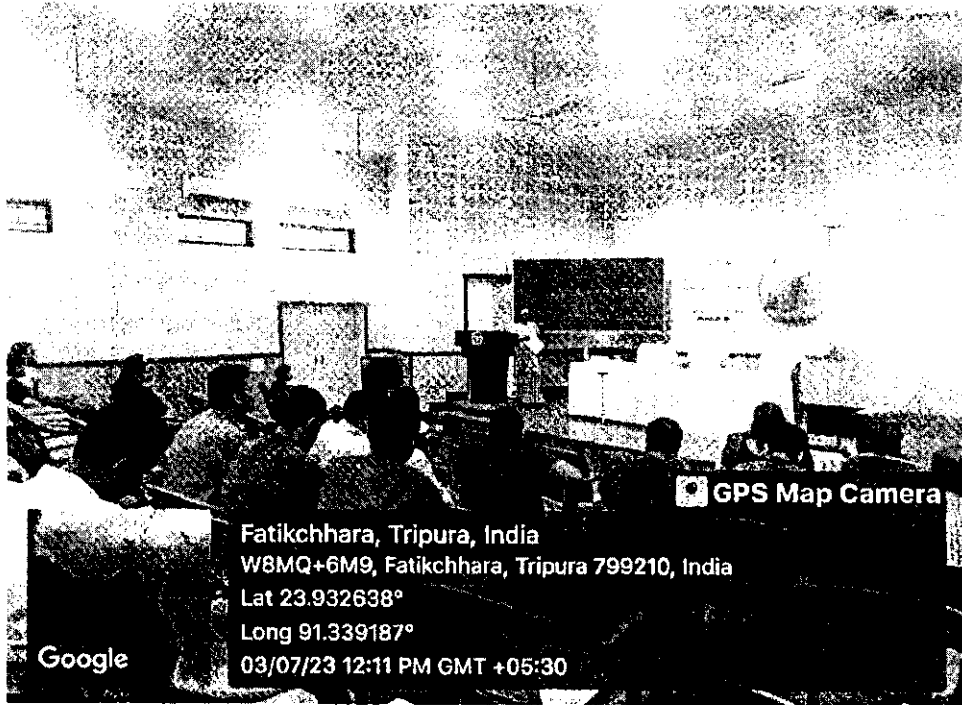

- ✓ Role of physics in the advancements in technology
- ✓ Technological advancements in communication technology
- ✓ Technological advancements in forensic science
- ✓ Familiarization with different types of cyber attacks
- ✓ Evolution of electricity and recent developments in Electrical Engineering
- ✓ Step by step evolution of the semiconductor technology including the recent developments.

Name of the Event: One Day Industrial Visit to MBB Airport , Agartala

Objective:

- To get a fair knowledge about the power house, its parts.
- Understand the concept of incoming and outgoing feeder.
- Gain knowledge in testing of high voltage equipments.
- To get a knowledge of air traffic controller and radar system.

Organized by: Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering (EEE), ICFAI University Tripura

Date: 20th April 2023

Number of participant Students: 33

Venue: MBB Airport, Agartala

Speaker (Details): Mr. Jempu Haokip, AGM- ATC.

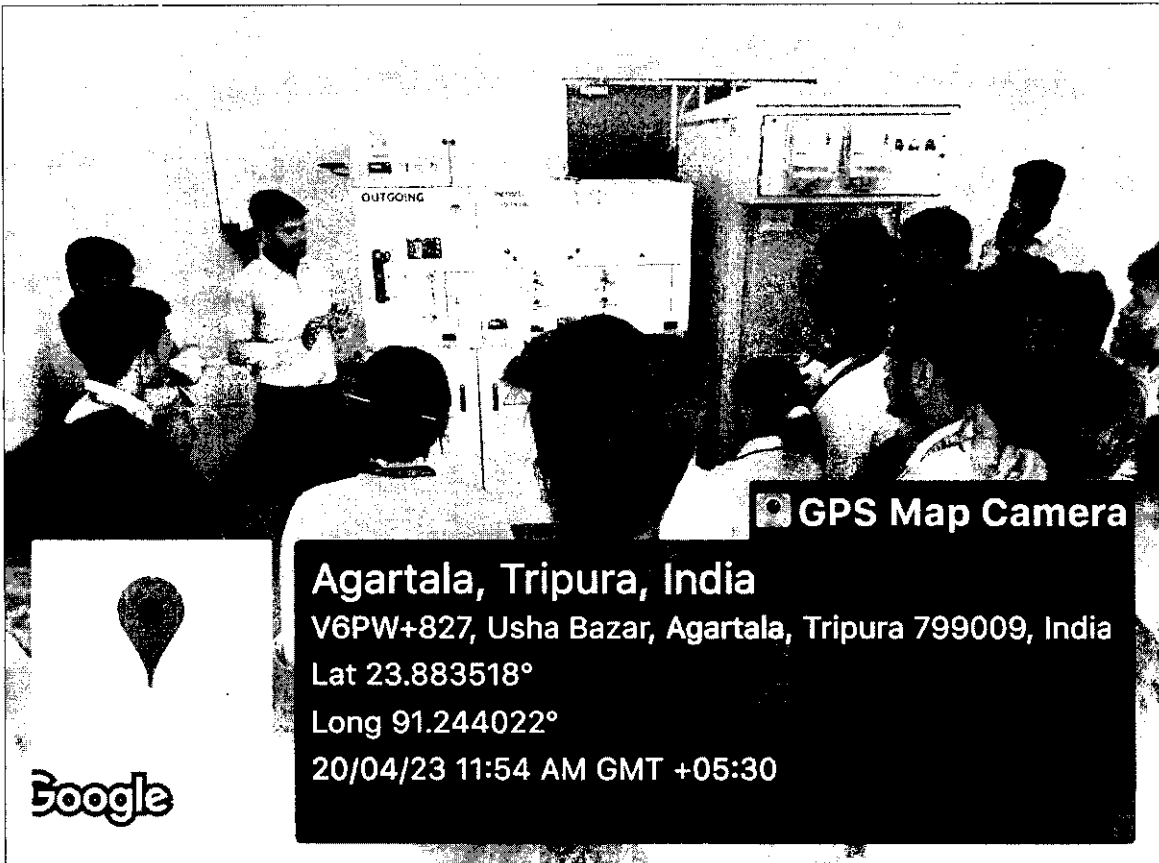

Outcome:

- Participants gathered knowledge on
 - ✓ Power house, substation
 - ✓ working of step down transformer and its various parts.
 - ✓ installation incoming and outgoing feeder.
 - ✓ 132/11kV transformers erection and maintenance.
 - ✓ Radar system and controlling.

Name of the Event: One Day Excursion to Integrated Command and Control Centre, Smart City Agartala, Howrah riverside project, Science City visit

Objective:

- To get a fair knowledge about the operation of smart city.
- Understand the application of traffic signal cameras and lights.
- Understand the concept integrated command centre and collaborating with AMC facility.
- Gain knowledge in howrah river side civil construction and beautification.
- To understand the future planning and execution of smart city, Agartala.
- To get a knowledge of different science experiments in Science city.

Organized by: Department of Electrical Engineering (EE), ICFAI University Tripura

Date: 28th Dec 2023

Number of participant Students: 12

Venue: IT Bhavan, Dashamighat, Science City, Agartala

Speaker (Details): The Smart city officials conducted a highly informative session for the students. They motivated the students to carefully select their domain and area of interest and informed them of the scope of areas like Traffic control, flood control and any emergency situation.

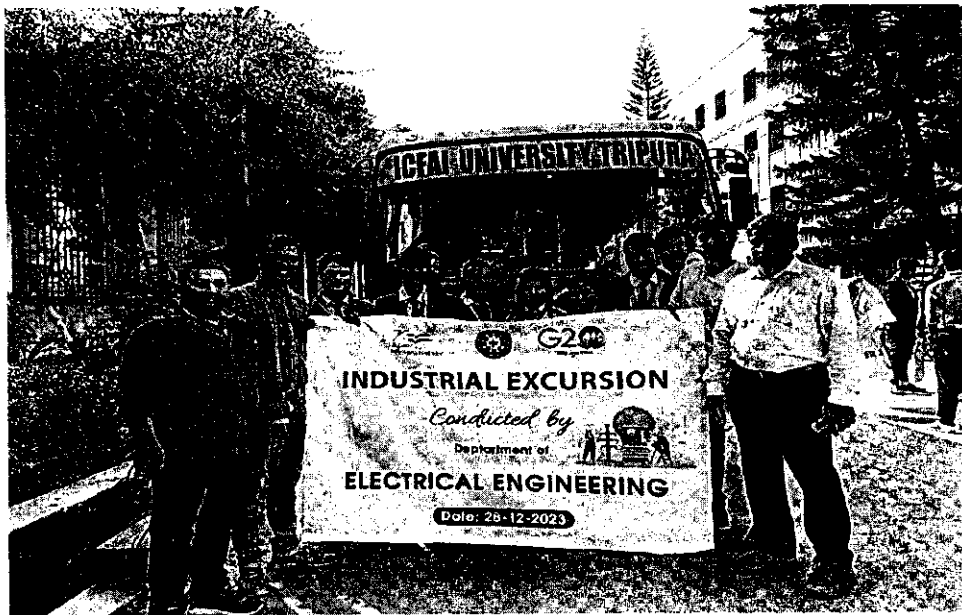

Outcome:

- Participants gathered knowledge on
 - ✓ smart city power distribution.
 - ✓ installation traffic signals cameras.
 - ✓ flood control in agartala city.
 - ✓ beautification of different water bodies.
 - ✓ Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition-SCADA Applications, Sensors and Automation System.

Name of the Event: Two Days Workshop on BLDC motor and energy efficiency.

Objective:

- To know about BLDC motor.
- Why transition from other kinds of motors into BLDC motor .
- How to save energy.

Organized by: Department of Electrical Engineering (EE), ICFAI University Tripura

Date: 4th to 5th April 2024

Time: 11AM-01PM

Number of participant Students: 18

Venue: ICFAI University Tripura Auditorium.

Resource Person: Mr Govind Vanjani and Mr Dharmu Vanjani.

About Resource Person:

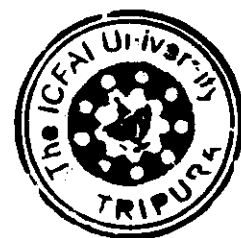

Mr. Govind Vanjani is a dedicated entrepreneur in telecommunications and Renewables focused on PV Solar and Fuel Cells. He has developed patented products using DC power generated by PV Solar for all main applications of electricity, i.e., Light, Motors, Electronics and heating. Extensive experience in product development (Six Sigma), marketing, sourcing and management for GE Motors and GE Capital. Presently he is working with the T2M Team for DC microgrids applications, including hybrid energy storage using different types of electrolyzers and fuel cells to maximize the value proposition of renewables.

Mr Dharmu Vanjani is seasoned entrepreneur. He is the Senior Vice Chairman and member of the Board of Directors of Federation of industries of India. He is also Chairman Managing Director of S S Natu Plastics & Metals (P) Ltd. They are the Pioneers & country leaders in Brushless motors and have operations in India & China with customers all over the world.

Outcome:

Participants gathered knowledge on:-

- BLDC motor
- Why BLDC fan is the future of ceiling fan
- Smart electrical systems.

Name of the Event: One Day Industrial Visit to 79-Till 132KV Grid Substation, Agartala.

Objective:

- To know the difference between Sub Station and Grid Substation.
- Familiarization with switchyard.
- Gain knowledge about the equipment in substation.
- Know about fault sensing and isolation.

Organized by: Department of Electrical Engineering (EE), ICFAI University Tripura

Date: 28th March 2024

Number of participant Students: 27

Venue: 132KV Grid Substation, 79-Till, Agartala.

Instructor: Mr. Pradyut Ghosh

Outcome:

Participants gathered knowledge on:-

- Transmission line
- Different types of insulators
- Different types of transformers like CT, PT and their function.
- Control Pane: simplex and duplex
- Relays, Isolators and isolation.

About: For transferring of electrical power from generating unit to distributing units various types of electrical equipment are required. The equipment like bus bars, isolator, power transformer etc.. are assembled together in the electrical substation through which consumers get electrical supply.

The main equipment required for the substation installations is explained below:-

1. Lightning Arrestor:- It protects the substation equipment from transient high voltage and also limits the duration and amplitude of the flow of current. The Lightning arrestor is connected between line and earth, i.e., in parallel with the equipment under protection at the substation. The lightning arrestor diverts, the current of the surges to the earth and hence protects the insulation and conductor of the system from damage.

2. Power Transformer:- Power transformers are used for stepping up the voltage for transmission at generating station and for stepping down the voltage for further distribution at main step-down substation.

Head of the Department of Electrical Engineering Department
ICFAI Technical University
Agartala, Tripura

3. Instrument Transformer:-Instrument transformer is used to reduced high voltages and currents to a safe and practical value which can be measured by conventional instruments
4. Bus Bar:- It is a type of electrical junction in which the incoming and outgoing of electrical current take place. When the fault occurs in the bus- bar, then all the circuit equipment connected to that section must be tripped out to give complete isolation in the shortest possible time.
5. Wave Trapper:-It is placed on incoming lines for trapping the high-frequency wave. The high-frequency wave which is coming from the remote substation disturbs the waves of voltage and current. Wave trapper trips the high-frequency wave and diverts them to the telecom panel.
6. Isolator:- It is a type of switches which is employed only for isolating the circuit when the current has only been interrupted. The isolator is called disconnected switches operates under no load condition. They are not equipped with arc-quenching devices. They do not have any specified current breaking capacity or current making capacity. In some cases, it is used for breaking the charging current of the transmission line.
7. Circuit Breaker:- The circuit breaker is a type of electrical switches which is used for opening or closing of electrical circuit whenever faults occur in the system. It consists of two moving contact switch are normally closed. Whenever the fault occurs in the system, the relay sends the tripping command to the circuit breaker and hence their contacts are moved apart. Thus, the fault occurs in the system becomes clear.
8. Relay:- It protects the power system component against abnormal conditions such as faults. The relay is a sensing device which senses the fault, then determines its location and finally, its ends tripping commands to the circuit. The circuit breaker after getting the command from the relay disconnects the faulted element. Relays protect the equipment from damage and hence subsequent hazards like fire, the risk to the life are reduced by removing the particularly faulted section.
9. Insulator:- It is used in generating stations and substations to fix and insulate the bus bars systems. They may be subdivided into post and bushing type. A post insulator consists of porcelain body and their cap is made up of cast iron. It is directly bolted to the bus bars by means of bus-bar clamps. A bushing or through insulator consists of porcelain-shell body, upper and lower locating washes used for fixing the position of bus-bar or rod in a shell.
10. Switchyard:-The switch yards, houses transformers, circuit breakers and switches for connecting and disconnecting the transformers and circuit breakers. It also has lightning arrestors for the protection of the power station against lightning strokes.
11. Indicating and metering Instruments:- Ammeters, Voltmeters, Wattmeters, kWh meters, KVARH meters, power factor meters reactive volt-amperes meters are installed in substations to control and maintain a watch over the current flowing through the circuits and over the power loads.

About The Institute

ICFAI University, Tripura (referred to hereafter as the University) was established in 2004 through an Act of State Legislature (Tripura Act 8 of 2004). The University has been approved by the University Grants Commission, under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act, 1956. ICFAI University, Tripura is a member of The Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU), London, UK, Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi, India, The Institution of Engineers (India) and Association of Management Development Institutions in South Asia (AMDISA), Hyderabad. The University has accreditations of the following regulatory authorities: Bar Council of India (BCI), National Council for Teachers Education (NCTE), Distance Education Bureau (DEB) and NAAC. The University offers Bachelor, Master and Doctoral programs in management, finance, science and technology, information technology, education, law and other areas.

Faculty of Science and Technology

The faculty of Science and Technology (FST) is a constituent of ICFAI University, Tripura. It has been established to promote quality education, research, training and consultation in the field of science and technology with a global perspective to meet the challenges of the fast-changing trends in the field and to match international standards.

Electrical Engineering

Electrical engineering is an engineering discipline concerned with the study, design, and application of equipment, devices, and systems which use electricity, electronics, and electromagnetism. It deals with a number aspects including electrical power generation, distribution, control and use and is also the foundation of fields like SOC etc.

Electrical engineering is now divided into a wide range of different fields, including power engineering, signal processing, control engineering, power electronics etc. Many of these disciplines overlap with other engineering branches, spanning a huge number of specializations including hardware engineering, electronics, electromagnetics and waves, microwave engineering, nanotechnology, electrochemistry, renewable energies, control, and electrical materials science.

About the Department

The Department of Electrical Engineering has been playing a vital role in producing scientists and technologists of highest calibre. The department runs one under graduate programme to cater to the ever challenging needs of technical excellence in all areas of electrical engineering such Electrical Machines, Instrumentation, Control & Automation, Power systems & Power electronics. The Department takes part in a range of activities. The Department undertakes consultancy and other forms of collaboration with various organizations. The Department organizes workshops, seminars and visits in various specialized fields with participants.

Themes of the Workshop

The participants of the workshop will get an idea regarding Internet of Things and its application. The main objective of the workshop is to enrich students knowledge about the state of art technologies on IoT and Embedded systems. The expert person will conduct some hands on training session for the benefit of the students

Name of the Event: 5-day hands on workshop on “Internet of Things and its Applications”

Objective:

- To get a fair knowledge about Embedded Systems & IoT.
- Understand the concept on IoT Hardware and Sensors, IoT Communication Protocols (Hands on – hardware interfacing).
- Gain knowledge on Arduino. Overview of ESP – 32 (Hands on – Interfacing various sensors).
- To get a knowledge of IoT Clouds, IoT Applications and Future Trends (Blynk IoT, Adrafruit, Thingspeak).

Organized by: Department of Electrical Engineering (EE), ICFAI University Tripura

Date: 22nd – 26th April 2024

Number of participant Students: 50

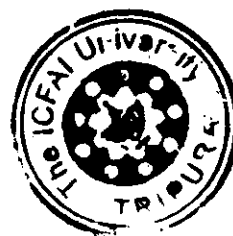

Venue: Room No. 402 EE lab, ICFAI University Tripura

Speaker (Details): Mr. Kumar Amitabh, (Sr. Technical Officer), and Mr. Raktim Acharjee, (Asst. Prof), NIELIT Agartala.

Outcome:

- Participants gathered knowledge on
 - ✓ Embedded Systems
 - ✓ IoT device working.
 - ✓ IoT Hardware and Sensors.
 - ✓ IoT Communication Protocols (Hands on – hardware interfacing).
 - ✓ Arduino,
 - ✓ Overview of ESP – 32 (Hands on – Interfacing various sensors).
 - ✓ IoT Clouds,
 - ✓ IoT Applications and Future Trends (Blynk IoT, Adrafruit, Thingspeak).

A Report on International Webinar on "Understanding the plastic problem: one nanoplastic at a time"

Date: 29th May, 2024

Venue: Online Webinar on Zoom

Organized by: Department of Chemistry, ICFAI Science School

Introduction:

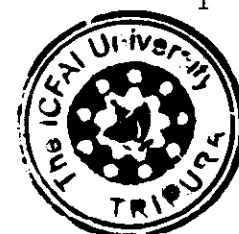

The Department of Chemistry organizes regular online webinars for the benefit of the students and faculty members. On 29th May, 2024, Dr. Chayan Dutta, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia 30303, USA has delivered the lecture on "Understanding the plastic problem: one nanoplastic at a time".

Objectives:

- To promote scientific understanding in cutting-edge modern science and technology among teachers and students.
- To develop a favorable atmosphere for efficient knowledge transfer.
- To encourage students and faculty in collaborative research.

Activities:

6	Vote of Thanks by Dr. Ganesh Chandra Paul, Assistant Professor & Head, Dept. of Chemistry, ICFAI University Tripura	29.05.2024	10:45 am to 10:50 am

The Welcome Address was delivered by Prof. Dr. A. Ranganath, Honorable Registrar, ICFAI University Tripura. After that, Prof. Dr. Priyangshu Rana Borthakur, Dean, Faculty of Science & Technology, ICFAI University Tripura delivered the welcome note. Then, Dr. Tufan Singha Mahapatra, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, ICFAI University Tripura, introduced the speaker Dr. Chayan Dutta, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia 30303, USA.

Then, Dr. Chayan Dutta delivered his speech. Plastic nanoparticles have become a significant concern in the scientific community and environmental sector. Their potential adverse impacts on biosystems, including ecosystems and living organisms, have prompted widespread attention and research efforts. This emerging issue has sparked discussions and initiatives aimed at understanding and mitigating the potential risks associated with PNPs. Plastic nanoparticles (PNPs) have emerged as a significant concern due to their potential adverse impacts on biosystems. Their small size and high surface-to-volume ratio facilitate interactions with lipid membranes, leading to structural modifications and long-term accumulation within membranes, ultimately resulting in functional changes. Also, theoretical predictions suggest that PNPs can disrupt the secondary structure of proteins through partial or complete denaturation. Such irreversible changes in protein structures are detrimental to the function of the native proteins. However, comprehending the effects of PNPs on biosystems is challenged by their physicochemical heterogeneity, and direct experimental evidence supporting previous theoretical predictions and the nature of fundamental interactions is still lacking. Thus, nanoscale single-particle measurements are necessary to elucidate the impact of particle variability by analyzing PNPs' transport properties on bio membranes. Here, he has showed a salt-dependent view of the transport mechanism of Polystyrene (PS) nanoplastics on model 1-palmitoyl-2-oleoyl-glycero-3-phosphocholine (POPC) lipid membrane. We used a home-built total internal reflection fluorescence (TIRF) microscope to probe single PS particles and a single particle tracking (SPT) analysis to track their transport on the membrane surface. His group's current focused on understanding these nanoscale effects using various high-resolution optical microscopy and spectroscopy techniques.

Dr. Ganesh Chandra Paul, Assistant Professor & Head, Dept. of Chemistry, ICFAI University Tripura has delivered the vote of thanks after the question-answer session was over.

Outcome:

This work highlights the significance of a single-particle understanding of PNPs' transport on a model membrane, providing insights into the adsorption mechanisms of nanoplastics onto lipid membranes in salt conditions. These preliminary investigations represent a foundational step towards understanding the fundamental physicochemistry of PNPs, shedding light on their adverse effects at the single-particle level.

Conclusion:

The results indicate a non-gaussian diffusion mode and suggest that particle confinement on the membrane surface increases with increasing salt content. Our research sheds light on the importance of comprehending PNP transport on a model membrane at the single particle level and offers insights into the mechanics underlying the adsorption of nanoplastics onto lipid membranes under salinity. These exploratory studies provide light on the detrimental effects of PNPs at the single-particle level and constitute a vital step towards comprehending the fundamental physicochemistry of PNPs.

A Report on Seminar

“Communication Skills for Interview Proficiency”

Dated: 1st May, 2024

Venue: Room no ACEXC304, The ICFAI University Tripura, Kamalghat, West Tripura

Organized by: Department of Chemistry, ICFAI Science School, The ICFAI University Tripura.

Introduction:

Effective communication skills play a vital role in achieving success in job interviews. It is not just about what the candidate says, but also how the candidate says it that can make a significant difference in how the candidate is perceived by potential employers. This seminar focuses on the importance of communication skills in interview settings and provides strategies to enhance proficiency.

Objective:

The objective of this seminar is to equip participants with the necessary communication skills to excel in job interviews. The aim is to highlight the importance of verbal and non-verbal communication, provide tips for conveying confidence and professionalism, and offer guidance on handling various interview scenarios effectively.

Activities:

Sl No.	Name of the Activity	Date	Time	No. of Participants
1.	Seminar on “Communication Skills for Interview Proficiency”	01.05.2024	11:10 am – 11:50 am	23

The Department of Chemistry has organised a seminar on “Communication Skills for Interview Proficiency” on 1st May, 2024. The seminar was hosted by Dr. Subhadip Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry. The Welcome Address was also delivered by Dr. Roy. Then, Dr. Aditya Ghosh, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Liberal Arts, The ICFAI University Tripura has given a talk on communication skills. Dr. Ghosh covered various aspects of communication skills for interview proficiency:

Verbal Communication:

- Clarity and Conciseness: Participants are advised to articulate their thoughts clearly and concisely, avoiding rambling or using jargon that might confuse the interviewer.
- Active Listening: It is important to listen attentively to the interviewer's questions to provide relevant responses. Paraphrasing or summarizing the question before answering can demonstrate understanding.
- Effective Storytelling: Participants are encouraged to use storytelling techniques to illustrate their skills and experiences. They should structure their answers using the STAR method (Situation, Task, Action, Result) to provide concise yet comprehensive responses.

Non-verbal Communication:

- Body Language: Participants should pay attention to their body language as it can convey confidence or nervousness. Maintaining good posture, making eye contact, and avoiding fidgeting are recommended.
- Facial Expressions: Facial expressions should reflect enthusiasm and engagement. Participants should smile naturally and show interest in the conversation.
- Hand Gestures: Using appropriate hand gestures to emphasize key points is suggested, while avoiding excessive movements that may be distracting.

Professionalism and Etiquette:

- Dress and Appearance: Participants are advised to dress appropriately for the interview, reflecting the company's culture. Attire should be neat, clean, and professional.
- Punctuality: Arriving on time for the interview demonstrates respect for the interviewer's time.
- Courtesy and Respect: Addressing the interviewer(s) politely, using their titles and names when appropriate, is important. Participants should thank them for the opportunity at the end of the interview.

Handling Different Interview Scenarios:

- Behavioral Questions: Participants should prepare responses to common behavioral questions, focusing on specific examples from their past experiences.
- Technical Questions: Practicing discussing technical skills and experiences in a clear and concise manner is recommended.

- Unexpected Situations: Participants should be prepared to adapt to unexpected questions or situations. Staying calm and composed, and asking for clarification if needed, are important strategies.

Outcome:

The seminar concluded with the following outcomes:

- Participants gained a deeper understanding of the importance of communication skills in interviews.
- Practical strategies and tips were provided to enhance verbal and non-verbal communication.
- Participants were encouraged to practice these skills through mock interviews and role-playing exercises.

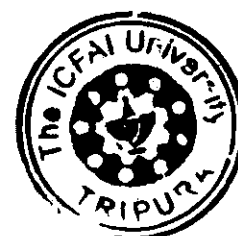

Conclusion:

In conclusion, effective communication skills are essential for interview success. By mastering verbal and non-verbal communication techniques, demonstrating professionalism and etiquette, and being prepared for different interview scenarios, individuals can significantly improve their chances of impressing potential employers and securing job opportunities. The Department of Chemistry hopes that this seminar has equipped the participants with the tools and confidence to excel in their future interviews.

A Report on Seminar

“Yoga for relaxation and mindfulness”

Dated: 30th April, 2024

Venue: Room no ACEXC303, The ICFAI University Tripura, Kamalghat, West Tripura

Organized by: Department of Chemistry, ICFAI Science School, The ICFAI University Tripura.

Introduction:

Yoga is an ancient practice that originated in India and has been gaining popularity worldwide for its numerous health benefits. Among these benefits, relaxation and mindfulness stand out as crucial aspects in today's fast-paced and stressful world. In this context, Department of chemistry has organised a seminar on “Yoga for relaxation and mindfulness” on 30.04.2024 to delve into the role of yoga in promoting relaxation and mindfulness, exploring its techniques and effects on the mind and body.

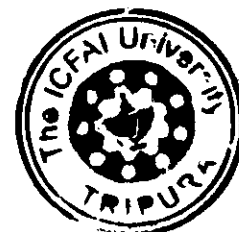

Objectives:

The objective of this seminar is to understand how yoga can be utilized as a tool for relaxation and mindfulness, and to explore its impact on overall well-being. The aim is to provide insight into various yoga techniques, their physiological effects, and how they contribute to mental clarity and peace.

Activities:

Sl No.	Name of the Activity	Date	Time	No. of Participants
1.	Seminar on “Yoga for relaxation and mindfulness”	30.04.2024	11:00 am – 11:30 am	54

The Department of Chemistry has organised a seminar on “Yoga for relaxation and mindfulness” on 30th April, 2024. The seminar was hosted by Dr. Subhadip Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry. The Welcome Address was also delivered by Dr. Roy. Then, Dr. Subhashis Biswas, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Physical Education and Yoga, The ICFAI University Tripura has given a talk and training on Yoga. Dr. Biswas discussed various aspects of yoga for relaxation and mindfulness:

1. Understanding Relaxation: Dr. Biswas began by explaining what relaxation truly means. It's not merely the absence of stress, but a state of calmness and balance where the mind and body can rejuvenate.

2. Yoga Techniques for Relaxation (visually demonstrated):

- Asanas (Poses): Certain yoga asanas are specifically designed to release tension from the body and calm the mind. Examples include Child's Pose (Balasana), Corpse Pose (Savasana), and Cat-Cow Stretch (Marjaryasana-Bitilasana) etc.
- Pranayama (Breath Control): Breathing exercises such as deep breathing (Pranayama) help in regulating the breath, calming the nervous system, and reducing stress levels.
- Meditation: Meditation techniques like mindfulness meditation and loving-kindness meditation help in training the mind to focus, promoting relaxation and inner peace.

3. Mindfulness in Yoga:

- Awareness of Body: Yoga encourages practitioners to be fully present in their bodies, paying attention to sensations, movements, and breath.
 - Present Moment Awareness: By focusing on the present moment during yoga practice, individuals develop mindfulness, which helps in reducing anxiety and increasing overall well-being.
4. Physiological Effects of Yoga: Dr. Biswas discussed how yoga impacts the nervous system, leading to a decrease in the production of stress hormones like cortisol, and an increase in the production of feel-good hormones like endorphins and serotonin.

The question-answer session was particularly interesting where many questions sprouted from the audience. Lastly Dr. Subhadip Roy, Assistant Professor, Department of chemistry, The ICFAI University Tripura delivered the vote of thanks after the question-answer session was over.

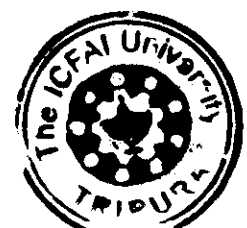

Out Come:

The seminar concluded with several key takeaways:

- Participants gained knowledge of various yoga techniques for relaxation and mindfulness.
- Understanding the physiological mechanisms behind yoga's effectiveness in stress reduction and relaxation.
- Participants were encouraged to incorporate yoga into their daily routine to experience its benefits firsthand.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, yoga offers a holistic approach to relaxation and mindfulness, addressing both the physical and mental aspects of well-being. By practicing yoga regularly, individuals can cultivate a sense of inner peace, reduce stress levels, and enhance their overall quality of life.

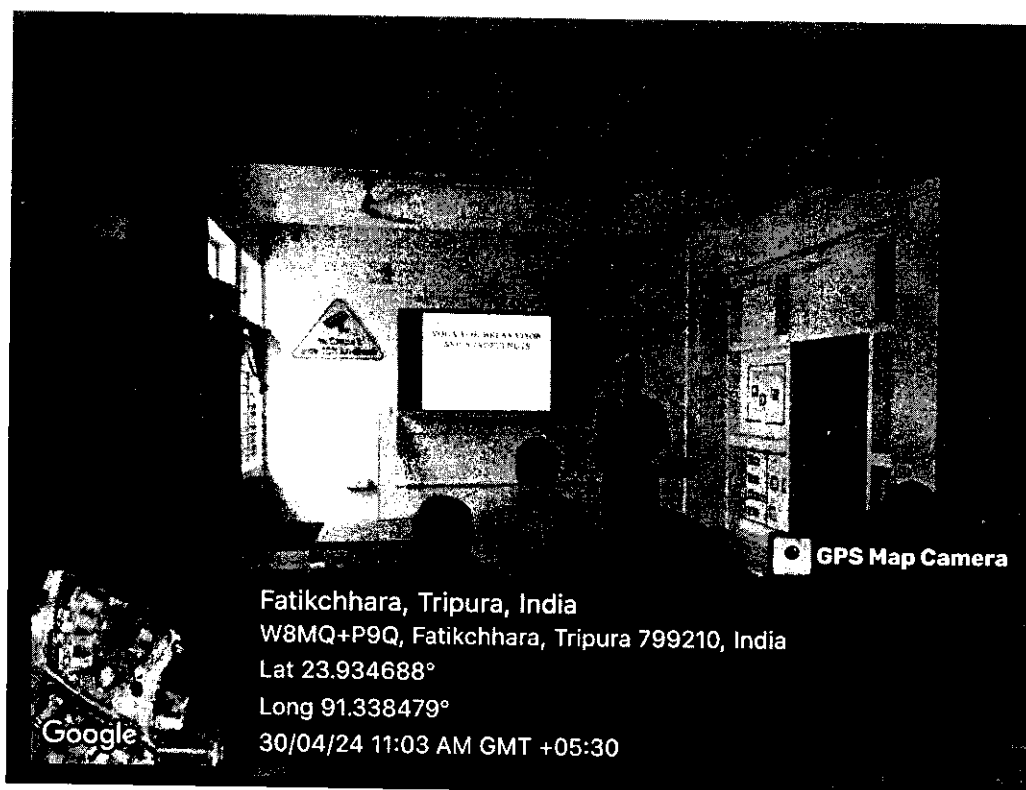

The Department of Chemistry is hopeful that this seminar has inspired students to explore yoga as a pathway to relaxation and mindfulness in their own life.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial, technological, legal challenges as well as business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives. It also provides exposure to real business problems and situations through industrial visits to different business sectors, case-studies and industrial interactions.

Brief Report of the Sessions:

➤ Day 1:

Dr. Asish De very vividly discussed about the concept of Idea and differentiated between the notion of idea and concept. He also defined idea as mental construct and clarified the perception of transforming ideas into research. Dr. Dey also explained the real methodology of discerning nomenclature, literature review and analysis of data in a research work.

Dr. Sangita Laha very vibrantly conversed the concept of research ethics by highlighting the importance of honesty, objectivity, integrity, carefulness and confidentiality in a research.

➤ Day 2:

Dr. K. Mahalaxmi in her session taught us about the journal finding tools. She also emphasised on the technique to identify fake journals and clarified the idea of role of high-quality journals in a research.

➤ Day 3:

Dr.Sridipa Sinha discussed about the reasons behind literature review and suggested to plan the research work in such a way that it can provide the reader an overall framework and can give a judicious rationale to study.

Dr.Thangaraja Arumugam also taught us about the advanced sampling technique and research tools for research methodology by giving emphasis on the sampling frame, sampling unit and other sampling techniques.

Dr. Manoj Kanti Debnath explored the designs used in research and data analysis. Sir practically demonstrated the data analysis methods on software's like SPSS and R software.

Dr. Indranil Majumder started the session by pointing out the Ph.D scenario in India and motivated about the way to keep balance between course work and beginning of real research. Thus he has shared various concepts of starting an effective research.

Dr.Swapan Raha addressed the research aspirants by sharing his knowledge on the experimental methods of research applicable for basic science. Sir also put special emphasis on the interpretation of approximate reasoning and the logic behind such reasoning.

Dr.Debatosh Bhattacharjee discussed about the significance of publication and research in thesis. According to him publishing a research paper can have many advantages for researchers, including: Career advancement, professional recognition, opportunities for collaboration, increased visibility, impact on society, credibility etc.

➤ Day 4:

Dr. Tarak Pan successfully taught about the statistical techniques in research.

Dr. Anurag Chauhan trained the researchers on several approaches to the text and the tools and methods of textual analysis for good results in research.

Dr. Sandeep Sitaram Ghugrevery thoroughly discussed how to start an effective experimental research by highlighting specially on various collaborative research schemes.

Dr. Raghu Echempati sir incredibly discussed about the objective and goal of Research Methodology in Science & Technology. Sir also explained how research and development activities contribute to improving innovation, and technology transfer, ultimately enhancing the quality of researchers.

Dr. Dipayan Chattopadhyaydiscussed how to incorporate AI and Machine Learning into research endeavours and also gave special prominence to various categorization of machine learning.

Dr. Prasenjit Bal explained the numerous advantages of using LaTeX for thesis writing and also gave valuable insights how LaTeX can streamline the writing process and can meet rigorous academic standards.

➤ Day 5:

Dr. Allesandro Vescovi instructed us on how to successfully transform a doctoral dissertation into a monograph. Additionally, Sir talked on the best assessment strategy.

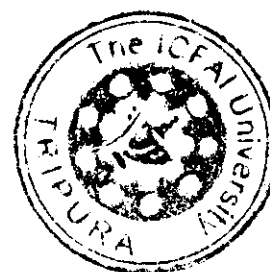

Dr Vijayakumar Mallappa amazingly discussed about the grasp of plagiarism which need to be detected and avoided as it is becoming a dangerous tool to bridge the gap in academics. It is demotivating the in spirants from doing authentic research. Sir also gave a vast knowledge about appropriate Citations and AI tools.

Detail Report of the Sessions:

Day 1: Common Session

Dr. AsisDe, Associate Professor & Director of Research, Humanities and Social Sciences, Mahishadal, Raj College, West Bengal; (3.00 PM - 4.00PM). He commenced by highlighting the importance of balancing course work with real research in the Ph.D. scenario in India. He emphasized the significance of starting an effective research, outlining various concepts to achieve this. He differentiated between idea and concept, defining idea as a mental construct and clarifying the process of transforming ideas into research. He also elaborated on the methodology of discerning nomenclature, literature review, and data analysis in a research work, providing a comprehensive understanding of the research process. His insights helped students grasp the fundamental principles of research, setting them on the right path for their Ph.D. journey.

Dr. Sangita Laha, Associate Professor & Assistant Registrar - (I/C), National University of Study and Research in Law, Ranchi, (4:10PM-5:10PM). The speaker emphasized the significance of research ethics, stressing the importance of honesty, objectivity, integrity, carefulness, and confidentiality. He highlighted that honesty is crucial in reporting results, objectivity is essential in analyzing data, and integrity is vital in maintaining transparency throughout the research process.

Day 2: Common Session

Dr. K. Mahalaxmi, Assistant Librarian of Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women, Coimbatore; (3.00 PM - 4.30PM). Began by highlighting the crucial aspect of journal selection in research, emphasizing the importance of finding reliable and reputable journals. He introduced various tools such as Google Scholar, Scopus, and Web of Science to identify high-impact journals. He also discussed the concept of predatory journals, defining characteristics such as poor peer-review processes, high publication fees, and lack of transparency. The session covered the significance of DOAJ (Directory of Open Access Journals) and Clarivate Analytics in identifying legitimate journals. Additionally, she warned about fake impact factors and the importance of verifying a journal's credibility before submission.

Day 3: Common session/Parallel Sessions of Social Science, Basic Science, Technical School

Dr.Sridipa Sinha, Professor, University of Calcutta, West Bengal; (2:00PM-2:50PM). Emphasized the significance of conducting a thorough literature review in research, highlighting its role in identifying knowledge gaps and providing a foundation for the study. He advised planning the research framework to facilitate the reader's understanding and to establish a sound rationale for the investigation. By doing so, the researcher can demonstrate a clear understanding of the existing knowledge in the field and justify their contribution to it. This approach enables the reader to comprehend the study's relevance, scope, and limitations, ultimately enhancing the research's credibility and impact.

Dr.Thangaraja Arumugam, Assistant Professor, Business School, Vellore Institute of Technology, Chennai; (3:00PM-4:00PM). In the course, we delved into the realm of research methodology, focusing on the importance of sampling techniques in research design. We explored the concept of a sampling frame, sampling unit, and various traditional sampling methods such as simple random sampling, stratified random sampling, and cluster sampling. Additionally, we discussed advanced sampling techniques like systematic sampling, multi-stage sampling, and snowball sampling. We also learned about power analysis and effect size, crucial elements in determining the sample size and significance of research findings. These concepts equipped us with a solid understanding of how to design and execute effective research studies.

Dr. Manoj Kanti Debnath, Assistant Prof., Department of Agricultural Statistics, Uttar Banga Krishi Viswavidyalaya, Pundibari, West Bengal; (4.10 PM - 5.10PM). During the session, the instructor explored various designs used in research and data analysis, providing a comprehensive overview of the concepts and techniques. He demonstrated practical applications of these designs on software platforms like SPSS and R, making complex concepts more accessible to the audience. The instructor's hands-on approach allowed participants to see the data analysis methods in action, facilitating a deeper understanding of statistical modeling, data visualization, and interpretation. Through interactive exercises and examples, participants gained hands-on experience with SPSS and R, enabling them to apply these skills to their own research projects.

Dr. Indranil Majumder, Senior Professor, Dept. of Nuclear & Atomic Physics, Dean, Infrastructure, Tata Institute of Fundamental Research, Colaba, Mumbai. (3.00 PM - 4.00PM). Began by highlighting the significance of balancing coursework with research in the Indian Ph.D. scenario. He emphasized the importance of striking a balance between mastering course material and initiating original research. He shared insightful concepts on starting an effective research, including identifying a research problem, setting specific goals, and developing a structured approach. He also stressed the importance of reading widely, attending seminars and workshops, and collaborating with peers to stay updated on the latest developments in the field. By emphasizing these key aspects, Dr. [Name] provided valuable guidance for Ph.D. students to successfully navigate their academic journey and achieve their research objectives.

Dr. Swapan Raha, Department of Mathematics Siksha Bhavana (Institute of Science) Visva-Bharati Santiniketan, Birbhum, WB; (4:10PM-5:10PM). Commenced the session by emphasizing the importance of striking a balance between course work and research in the PhD program. He stressed that it's essential to start with a clear understanding of the research topic and its objectives, and then gradually delve into the literature review. He highlighted the significance of identifying a specific research gap and formulating a research question that can be addressed through experimentation. He also emphasized the importance of adopting an experimental method that is relevant to the research area, such as randomized controlled trials or case studies. Additionally, he cautioned against overemphasis on statistical analysis, encouraging students to interpret their findings with caution and consider the limitations of their study.

Dr. Debatosh Bhattacharjee, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Jadavpur University, WB; (3:00PM-4:00PM). He underscored the importance of publication and research in a thesis, citing numerous benefits for researchers. Publishing a research paper can lead to career advancement, professional recognition, and opportunities for collaboration. It also increases visibility, allowing researchers to share their findings with a broader audience, ultimately having a positive impact on society. Additionally, publication enhances credibility and reputation, opening doors for future research opportunities and funding. He emphasized that publishing research is essential for establishing oneself as an expert in the field and making a lasting contribution to the scientific community.

Day 4: Parallel Session so Social Science/Basic Science/Technical School

Dr. Tarak Nath Pan, Emeritus Professor, The ICFAI University Tripura; (3:00PM-4:00PM). He successfully taught various statistical techniques to the research students, including hypothesis testing, regression analysis, and ANOVA. He used real-life examples and interactive exercises to help students understand the concepts, making them more confident in their ability to apply statistical methods in their own research projects.

Dr. Anurag Chauhan, Professor of English Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur; (4:10PM-5:10PM). trained the researchers on various approaches to textual analysis, including content analysis, thematic analysis, and discourse analysis. He demonstrated the use of tools such as NVivo, Atlas.ti, and MaxQDA to facilitate efficient data coding and categorization. The training emphasized the importance of data triangulation, validity, and reliability in textual analysis. He also highlighted the significance of using theoretical frameworks and conceptual models to guide the analysis. By providing hands-on experience with these tools and methods, he equipped the researchers with the skills to conduct a comprehensive and rigorous textual analysis for their research projects.

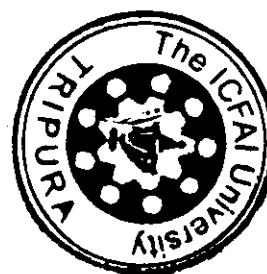

Dr. Sandeep Sitaram Ghugre, Ghugre, Centre-Director, Kolkata Centre, UGC-DAE Consortium for Scientific Research Sector 3, Kolkata, West Bengal; (2:30PM-3:30Pm), Research involves a systematic approach to gain deeper insights into the universe and its components. It includes dedicated efforts to discover new knowledge or refine existing knowledge. The process is likened to Robert Frost's poem "The Road Not Taken," where choosing less-travelled paths leads to unique discoveries. Researchers in basic science aim to understand why and how things function, often leading to technological advancements and applications. They explore fundamental questions about the nature of reality, laying the groundwork for applied sciences.

Dr. Raghu Echempati, Echempati, Professor, Wayne State University; Retired professor, Kettering University; Emeritus Professor, The ICFAI University Tripura; (3.40 PM - 4.40 PM). He delivered a comprehensive lecture on the objectives and goals of research methodology in Science & Technology. He highlighted how research and development activities contribute to innovation, driving technological advancements and improving the quality of life. He explained how technology transfer enables the dissemination of new knowledge, products, and services, ultimately enhancing the researcher's expertise and reputation. He emphasized that effective research methodology is crucial for achieving these goals, ensuring that research is rigorous, relevant, and reproducible. His engaging presentation instilled in students the importance of research methodology in driving innovation and technological progress.

Dr. Dipayan Chattopadhyay, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, The ICFAI University Tripura. Discussed; (4:50PM-5:50PM), how to incorporate AI and Machine Learning into research endeavours by mentioning the different types of machine learning and its broad categories. The key take ways from the session understood AI and its fundamental principles. It also highlighted real-world examples of how machine learning and AI are transforming research across different domains. The hand-on-hand sessions equipped participants with practical skills. The interactive nature of the workshop encouraged collaboration among participants. This facilitated the exchange of ideas and fostered potential research collaborations.

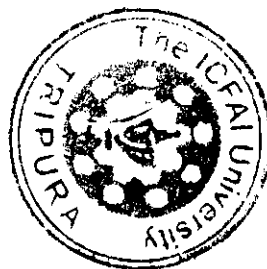

Dr. Prasenjit Bal, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, The ICFAI University Tripura, (4:50PM-5:50PM), explained the numerous advantages of using Latex for thesis writing, installing Latex allows for professional-quality typesetting with efficient cross-referencing and an extensive package library. This free and open-source software is available for Windows, MacOS, and Linux, providing superior mathematical typesetting. With a Latex distribution and editor, researchers can produce high-quality documents with ease, making it an essential tool for academics and professionals. During the presentation the speaker provided a live demonstration of latex. Participants engaged actively, asking questions and seeking clarifications. The session concluded with a Q&A segment, where the spoke person addressed specific queries and provided additional guidance.

Day 5: Common Sessions

Dr. Alessandro Vescovi, Associate Professor, Università degli Studi di Milano (The University of Milan, Italy), (2:00PM-3:00PM), emphasized that evaluating the quality of a dissertation or monograph is a complex process, often performed by academics and peers. Spontaneous evaluation by the academic community can be influenced by various factors, leading to varying opinions on the quality of the work. This can be attributed to differences in evaluators' expertise, research interests, and cultural backgrounds. To mitigate this issue, suggested using shifting parameters to evaluate different aspects of the dissertation. This approach allows evaluators to focus on specific criteria, such as methodology, originality, and significance, rather than overall quality. However, even with shifting parameters, planned evaluation of a large body of work can still lead to diverse opinions among evaluators. As a result, it is crucial for evaluators to provide constructive feedback and justify their ratings, enabling the author to understand the strengths and weaknesses of their work.

Dr Vijayakumar Mallappa, Librarian, Pondicherry University, Puducherry, (3:10PM-5:10PM), discussed the various tools and apps used in academic research, highlighting their procedures and applications. He mentioned Scisummary, Parrot, and Wortune as effective tools for summarizing and analyzing research articles. Julius was introduced as a tool for citation management, while Knowledge Map was emphasized for visualizing research skills. Gamma was presented as a medium for presenting research findings in an engaging manner. Participants' questions revealed a desire for more information on these tools, prompting to elaborate on their benefits and limitations, providing a comprehensive overview of the various tools available for researchers.

Exploring Research Design,
Ethics and Academic Writing (in Hybrid Mode)

Monday – Friday | 1st – 5th July, 2024

Workshop Highlights

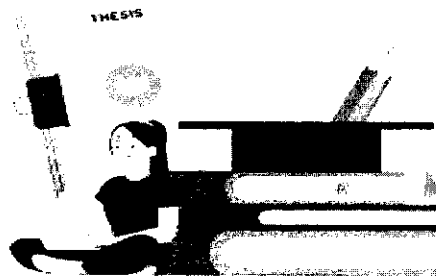

- How to Formulate a research topics
- Research ethics
- Journal finding tools
- How to review related literatures
- Advance Sampling Techniques
- Research tools for robust methodology
- Research designs
- Effective research methodology
- Research publication and Ph. D.
- Application of statistical techniques
- The textuality of things
- How to start an effective experimental research
- Use of AI and ML in Research
- Plagiarism, Citations, AI Tools
- Conversion of Ph. D. dissertation into a successful monograph

01-07-2024 to 05-07-2024

About Workshop:

"The Craft and Methodology of Thesis Composition: Exploring Research Design, Ethics, and Academic Writing" is an intensive 5-day workshop specifically designed for researchers, graduate students, and academics engaged in thesis writing. This workshop also aims to provide a comprehensive and structured understanding of the essential components of academic research. Participants will delve into the process of topic selection, literature review, research design, ethical considerations, and the effective application of modern technologies in research. The program is crafted to develop foundational skills, enhance technical writing proficiency, and introduce innovative tools and techniques that can profoundly impact research work.

About the University:

The ICEAI University, Tripura was established in 2004 through an Act of State Legislature (Tripura Act 8 of 2004). The ICEAI University, Tripura is included in the list of universities maintained by the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act, 1956. The ICEAI University, Tripura is a member of The Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU), London, UK, Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi, India, The Institution of Engineers (India), and Association of Management Development Institutions in South Asia (AMDISA), Hyderabad. The University campus based at Agartala is a lush green campus spread over 32.55 acres at Kamalghat. The University is equipped with computing, well-equipped library, canteen, medical center, and sports and recreation facilities. The campus provides the latest teaching aids and is Wi-Fi enabled. The University is widely recognized as an institution devoted to quality research and teaching. The University gives utmost importance to the Industry-University interface, soft skill development, life skill development, and overall skill development of students. The faculties bring their extensive knowledge, professional experience, and advanced education to their task at the University. The faculty members from IITs, NITs, and Central Universities have sound academic backgrounds and sound conceptual knowledge in their respective disciplines.
