Respected Sir

The Faculty of Law is going to organize an Inter-Departmental Debate Competition for the students of ICFAI University Tripura on 8th and 9th October 2026 at NJY Central Library. The competition is intended to provide students from different departments with an academic platform to engage in constructive discussion and debate on contemporary issues. The programme will encourage students to develop critical thinking, research aptitude, logical reasoning, public speaking, communication skills, confidence and the ability to present and defend their viewpoints effectively.

As a centre of legal education, the Faculty of Law considers debate to be an important academic activity for developing the skills of argumentation, advocacy and reasoned discourse. The proposed event will also promote interdisciplinary interaction among students and encourage appreciation of diverse perspectives.

Motion for Preliminary and Semi Final Round: "The rapid expansion of Artificial Intelligence poses a greater threat than benefit to society."

Motion for Final Round: "Social Media Has Strengthened Democratic Governance more Than Traditional Media".

Therefore you are requested to give your kind approval for the conduct of the program.

Thanks and Regards
Dr. Nabarun Bhattacharjee

2. TC 11

The Final Round was conducted on 9th October 2026, with teams TC 07 and TC 11 competing for the championship.

TIMEKEEPING AND PENALTIES

All participants must strictly adhere to the prescribed time limits for each round of the competition.

- In the Preliminary and Semi-final Rounds, each speaker will be allotted 5 minutes, while the Argument session will be limited to 2 minutes.
- In the Final Round, each speaker will be allotted 7 minutes, with 2 minutes for the Argument session.

A warning bell may be given before the allotted time expires, and a final bell will indicate the end of the speaking time. Exceeding the prescribed time limit may result in the deduction of marks. Repeated violations of the competition rules, misconduct, plagiarism, the use of unfair means, presentation of fabricated evidence, personal abuse, threats, or receiving unauthorized assistance may lead to disqualification. Participants must also follow the instructions of the moderator and the organizing committee and maintain proper decorum throughout the competition.

EVALUATION AND MARKING CRITERIA

The performance of participants shall be evaluated by the judging panel according to the prescribed criteria, with a total of 100 marks.

The evaluation will focus on the participants' knowledge of the subject, the quality and originality of their arguments, logical reasoning, ability to present relevant facts and examples, and effectiveness in responding to the opposing side.

Judges will also consider the clarity of presentation, communication skills, oratory, confidence, overall presentation, and time management.

Participants are expected to present relevant, logical, and well-supported arguments while maintaining respectful conduct. The judges shall assess all participants fairly according to the prescribed marking system, and their decision shall be final and binding, subject to any expressly provided appeal or review mechanism.

SCORING

The competition shall follow a 100-mark scoring system. Marks will be distributed among six evaluation criteria to ensure a comprehensive assessment of each participant's performance. The distribution is as follows:

- 1. Knowledge and Content – 30 Marks: Assessment of subject knowledge, accuracy of information, relevance, and quality of content.
- 2. Logical Reasoning and Argument – 25 Marks: Assessment of the logical structure, clarity, and strength of arguments.
- 3. Counter-Argument – 15 Marks: Assessment of the ability to respond effectively to the opposing side's arguments and present relevant rebuttals.
- 4. Communication and Oratory – 15 Marks: Assessment of speaking skills, clarity, expression, and the ability to communicate ideas effectively.
- 5. Confidence and Presentation – 10 Marks: Assessment of confidence, composure, presentation style, and overall delivery.
- 6. Time Management – 5 Marks: Assessment of the ability to complete the speech within the prescribed time limit.

Total: 100 Marks

Judges shall award marks according to these criteria. Participants should ensure that their arguments are relevant, well-reasoned, supported by reliable information, and presented within the allotted time. Repetition of the main speech without adequately addressing the opponent's arguments may receive lower marks.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All participants are expected to maintain discipline, fairness, and professionalism throughout the competition. They must show respect towards the judges, organizers, opposing participants, and audience. Abusive, insulting, threatening, or discriminatory language, personal attacks, and any form of disruptive behaviour are strictly prohibited. Participants must present their arguments respectfully and focus on the subject matter rather than attacking their opponents personally.

Participants must use reliable sources of information and must not present false, fabricated, or deliberately misleading information as facts. Plagiarism, the use of unfair means, and receiving unauthorized assistance during a speech are prohibited and may result in disqualification. Participants must follow the instructions of the moderator and the organizing committee, observe the prescribed time limits, and remain present and ready before their scheduled turn. Any attempt to disrupt the competition or any serious violation of the rules may result in removal from the venue or disqualification, as determined by the organizing committee.

CLARIFICATIONS AND INTERPRETATION

The organizing committee shall be responsible for clarifying any doubts or questions regarding the rules, format, schedule, and conduct of the competition. Participants must follow the prescribed rules and all instructions issued by the moderator and the organizing committee. Any matter not specifically covered by the rules shall be decided by the organizing committee. The committee reserves the right to modify the schedule, format, or rules whenever necessary.

The judging panel shall evaluate participants according to the prescribed marking criteria, and its decision shall be final and binding, subject to any expressly provided appeal or review mechanism. Participants shall not interrupt or challenge the judges during the evaluation process. All participants shall be deemed to have accepted the rules and regulations upon registration and must comply with the applicable rules of the university and the venue.

VALEDICTORY CEREMONY

(9th JANUARY 2026)

The valedictory ceremony of the 2nd Intra-University Debate Competition 2026 was held on 9th October 2026 at The ICFAI University, Tripura, marking the successful conclusion of the two-day academic event organised by the Literary Society, Faculty of Law. The ceremony brought the competition to a formal close, celebrating the enthusiasm, dedication, and intellectual participation demonstrated by the students throughout the event.

The competition provided a platform for students to express their views, exchange ideas, develop logical reasoning, and enhance their public-speaking and argumentative skills. Participants demonstrated their ability to present their perspectives, respond to opposing arguments, and engage in meaningful discussions on contemporary issues. The event also highlighted the importance of critical thinking, effective communication, teamwork, and respectful disagreement in academic life.

The valedictory ceremony served as an occasion to acknowledge the efforts of the participants, the valuable contribution of the judges, and the support extended by the faculty members and organising committee. The dedication of the student convenors and members of the Literary Society played an important role in the successful conduct of the competition. The ceremony concluded on a positive note, celebrating the spirit of learning, healthy competition, and academic excellence.

CONCLUSION

The 2nd Intra-University Debate Competition 2026, organised by the Literary Society, Faculty of Law, The ICFAI University, Tripura, successfully provided students with an opportunity to develop their intellectual abilities, communication skills, confidence, and analytical thinking. Conducted over two days, on 8th and 9th October 2026, the competition included preliminary rounds, semi-final rounds, and a final round, allowing participants to demonstrate their knowledge, reasoning, and ability to present and defend their viewpoints.

The competition encouraged students to explore contemporary issues, evaluate different perspectives, construct logical arguments, and respond effectively to opposing opinions. It also promoted teamwork, discipline, time management, mutual respect, and the importance of maintaining decorum during discussions. The participation and enthusiasm of the students, together with the guidance of the judges and faculty members, contributed significantly to the overall success of the programme.

In conclusion, the 2nd Intra-University Debate Competition 2026 was a meaningful academic initiative that strengthened the spirit of healthy competition, collaboration, and intellectual growth among students. The event concluded successfully, leaving participants with valuable experiences and encouraging them to continue pursuing knowledge, confidence, and excellence.
