

Report on the Academic Programme
Organized by the
Constitutional Law Society, Faculty of Law, ICFAI University Tripura
at the Central Sanskrit University, Eklavya Campus
Date: 28 January 2026

Introduction

With the objective of promoting constitutional awareness and strengthening inter-university academic collaboration, the Constitutional Law Society of the Faculty of Law, ICFAI University Tripura organized an academic programme at the Central Sanskrit University, Eklavya Campus on 28 January 2026. The programme marked a significant collaborative engagement between the two institutions and provided a meaningful platform for academic exchange and constitutional discourse.

The event was graced by the presence of Shri Maklesh Kumar, Director, Central Sanskrit University, Eklavya Campus. ICFAI University Tripura was represented by Dr. Subholaxmi Mukherjee, Faculty Convener, Constitutional Law Society, and Dr. Romita Reang, both of whom were felicitated by the host university in recognition of their academic contributions, along with Shri Maklesh Kumar.

Inaugural Session

At the commencement of the programme, the authorities of the Central Sanskrit University acknowledged the academic excellence of ICFAI University Tripura and expressed appreciation for the pedagogical approach and scholarly engagement demonstrated by the Faculty of Law and its students. This acknowledgment set a constructive and collaborative tone for the programme.

The inaugural address was delivered by Shri Maklesh Kumar, who emphasized the importance of constitutional values in contemporary governance and education. He highlighted the enduring relevance of constitutional principles in shaping responsible citizenship and encouraged students to engage deeply with constitutional studies. He also expressed his pleasure in learning about legal education and its interdisciplinary relevance.

Following this, Dr. Subholaxmi Mukherjee addressed the gathering and elaborated on the role of the Constitutional Law Society in fostering legal awareness, critical thinking, and academic discourse among law students. Her address underscored the Society's commitment to promoting constitutional literacy through academic initiatives and outreach activities. She highlighted how constitutional values intersect with diverse academic disciplines and social realities.

Subsequently, Dr. Romita Reang shared her insights on constitutional education, emphasizing the importance of interdisciplinary learning in understanding the Constitution in a holistic manner.

Student Interaction and Technical Session

The programme then transitioned into an interactive student session. Ms. Payal Biswas, a second-year BBA LL.B. student of ICFAI University Tripura, delivered a brief yet insightful address on the Indian Constitution. She emphasized its status as the supreme law of the land and highlighted its role in guaranteeing fundamental rights, upholding democratic values, and ensuring justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity for all citizens.

Thereafter, the host of the programme, Mr. Ramyak Bhattacharjee, invited the student speakers for the technical session.

The first presentation was delivered by Ms. Prajukta Mukherjee, a fifth-year BA LL.B. student, on the topic "Transparency or Surveillance: Constitutional Limits on Governance in the Digital Age." She thoughtfully examined the constitutional balance between state surveillance for security purposes and the fundamental right to privacy, drawing attention to landmark judicial interpretations and emerging challenges in digital governance.

The second speaker, Mr. Ramprasad Pal, a fourth-year BBA LL.B. student, presented on "Cyber Security and Cyberbullying: Privacy, Dignity and Safety Threats under the Constitution." His presentation focused on the impact of cyber threats and online harassment on an individual's right to privacy and dignity under Article 21 of the Constitution. He emphasized the need for stronger legal frameworks, public awareness, and institutional safeguards to address cyber-related offences. His presentation was well-structured and supported by visual aids.

This was followed by Ms. Priyashree Sutradhar, who presented on "Mental Health of Students: A Constitutional Right to Life, Dignity and Well-Being." She highlighted mental health as an integral component of the right to life under Article 21 and stressed the responsibility of the State and educational institutions to ensure a supportive, inclusive, and nurturing environment for students.

Conclusion

At the conclusion of the programme, Mr. Anikesh Shil, Convenor of the Constitutional Law Society, delivered the vote of thanks. He expressed sincere gratitude to the dignitaries, faculty members, organizers, and student participants for their valuable contributions and support in making the programme a success.

The academic programme concluded on a positive and enriching note and received widespread appreciation for its academic depth, active student participation, and spirit of inter-university collaboration. The initiative successfully enhanced constitutional awareness and provided a meaningful platform for intellectual engagement, reaffirming the Constitutional Law Society's commitment to promoting constitutional values through academic excellence and collaborative learning.

PHOTOS

THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, TRIPURA

Constitutional Law Society

Faculty of Law

ORGANISES

An Awareness Program On

"CONSTITUTIONAL LAW & ITS VALUES"

DATE

January 28, 2026

VENUE

Central Sanskrit University
(Tripura)

