

THE ICFAI UNIVERSITY, TRIPURA
Faculty of Special Education

Report on 2nd December, National Special Education Day &
3rd December 2019, International Day of Persons with Disabilities

The National Special Education Day and International Day of Persons with Disabilities were observed on December 03, 2019 for Promoting the participation of persons with disabilities and their leadership: taking action on the 2030 Development Agenda. It focuses on empowerment of persons with disabilities for inclusive, equitable and sustainable development as mentioned in 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The program commenced with cutting of ribbon on the Special Education Wall Magazine, by Dr.A. Ranganath, Registrar IUT. The display materials were signed by Dr. Ranganath, Registrar, IUT, Dr.P.S.Srivastava, Principal FoE, Dr. Dulal Debnath, Principal FoPEY.

Dr.A. Ranganath, Registrar IUT Opening of Wall Magazine

The welcome speech was given by Ms. Silali Banerjee, Asst. Prof./Coordinator, FoSE, she welcomes all by highlighting the significance of both the days. Dr. P.S.Srivastava, Principal FoE gave his thoughts and highlighted the august presence with the birthday of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, he also expressed his deep concern towards the education of persons with disabilities. Dr. Dulal Debnath, Principal FoPE&Y, expressed his thoughts on the care and rehabilitation of persons with disabilities, he cited some examples of significance of sports in disability education.

Dignitaries on Dias

Dr.A. Ranganath, Registrar IUT delivers his speech

Dr.A. Ranganath, Registrar, IUT advised the august gathering to take oath on this day to fulfill the 2030 agenda of SDG, and make the special education field more enriched with quality educational services, develop quality professionals who will be equipped with innovative aptitude. Dr. Madhavi Sharma, Principal FoSE gave vote of thanks by highlighting the dignitaries speech present in the program, thus ending the formal opening of the program.

Dance Performance by Abled Children

Presentation by M.Ed.Spl.Edu. –ID Students

The children of Educational Lab cheered up the audience by their colorful dance performance under the guidance of students of B.Ed.Spl. Education – 1 semester. Power point on the significance of National Special Education Day & International Day of Persons with Disabilities was presented by Ms. Sumita Chowdhury and Mr. Abhra Mukhopadhyay, Student of M.Ed.Spl.Education ID. Drama was performed by students of B.Ed.Spl. Education -3rd semester.

Drama performed by students of B.Ed.Spl. Education -3rd semester.

Quiz competition

Quiz competition was organized by Student of M.Ed.Spl.ID Mr. Erik Tripura, Ms. Sumita Shil and Ms. Sumita Chowdhury, questions were framed from the field of Special Education. With this observation of both the days came to an end with extending help from faculties and all students of Special Education department.

Abled Children, Parents, Students and Faculties gathered for Observance