

“Law students of ICFAI University, Tripura has visited "APNA GHAR” (an Old Age Home as a part of project of the Law students). There they had interactive session with the inmates regarding the working of the home in compliance with the legal requirement, the reasons for their stay in the home. Then they had a discussion with Sri Dilip Pal, General Secretary of the home where he informed about the establishment, strength and functions of the home.”

