Defining key terms we'll use today

1. Workforce

The people who are currently working or available for work in a specific region. The vision of LinkedIn is to create economic opportunity for every member of the global workforce.

2. Connections

Contacts on LinkedIn. You can add connections by sending invitations to other people on the platform, or by accepting invitations from other people.

3. Network

A connected community of people. Networking is an activity to strengthen relationships with others and can lead to professional opportunities including job offers.

4. Referral

When a job seeker is recommended for a career opportunity by someone in his or her network.
