

As a part of International Mother Language Day, students of FOE department designed and decorated Wall Magazine – February 22, 2019

As a part of International Mother Language Day, students of FOE department designed and decorated Wall Magazine held on 22.02.2019. Program started with inaugural song, and was structured with Recitations, Speech, Songs, and dance reflecting to their Mother Languages.

- STATES OF NORTH EAST INDIA -

1. Assam		2. Arunachal Pradesh
Area	78,131 sq km	Area	83,743 sq km
Population	26,960,000	Population	1,272,000
Capital	Dispur	Capital	Itanagar
Language	Assamese	Language	English, Hindi, Nepali
3. Mizoram		4. Manipur
Area	21,485 sq km	Area	22,273 sq km
Population	1,123,000	Population	2,871,000
Capital	Aizawl	Capital	Imphal
Language	Mizo	Language	Meitei Mayek, English, Hindi
5. Tripura		6. West Bengal
Area	10,423 sq km	Area	88,747 sq km
Population	3,673,000	Population	91,276,000
Capital	Dishpur	Capital	Kolkata
Language	Santhali	Language	Bengali, Hindi, English

Handwritten text in Assamese script, including the words 'বাল্য' (Childhood) and 'স্বপ্ন' (Dream). It features a drawing of a flower with a face and a small figure.

A colorful drawing with a red circle containing the Assamese word 'স্বপ্ন' (Dream). It includes text in Assamese and a small illustration of a building.

A pink rectangular board with the Assamese title 'স্বপ্নের স্মৃতি' (Memory of Dreams). It features a drawing of a red and white striped flag and handwritten text in Assamese.

A drawing of a green map of India with text in Assamese. It includes a small illustration of a person and some text at the bottom.

A drawing of a green dove with its wings spread, symbolizing peace. It includes the text 'INTERNATIONAL PEACEMAKERS DAY' and '25th JANUARY'.

