About the University

The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty-two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial, technological, legal challenges as well as business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives. It also provides exposure to real business problems and situations through industrial visits to different business sectors, case-studies and industrial interactions.

Registration Detail

For the smooth conduct of the programme, an online Google Form was created to facilitate participant registration. The registration form was designed to capture essential information such as the name, designation, university/institutional affiliation.

A unique feature of the registration process was the inclusion of a specific field titled “Expectation from the Session.” This allowed participants to share their personal learning goals and areas of interest in advance, thereby enabling the organizers to gain valuable insights into what the audience sought to take away from the programme. Overall, the expectations ranged from understanding the role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in research to exploring emerging trends, ethical considerations, and future directions in this rapidly evolving domain. Many participants expressed interest in learning about AI tools for academic research, data analysis, and innovation, while others sought to understand the implications of AI on scholarly communication, interdisciplinary studies, and skill development. A portion of participants also indicated curiosity about career opportunities and research collaborations in the field of AI. This inclusive and interactive registration approach not only streamlined the participation process but also helped in designing a more need-based and engaging session, as the speakers could align their discussions with the specific expectations of the attendees.

The Webinar “Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Research in the Present Context and Future Directions”, an initiative by the Research and Development Department, ICFAI University Tripura, witnessed enthusiastic participation from a diverse group of attendees, including faculty members, research scholars, and students from ICFAI University, Tripura, as well as from other institutions. In total, a significant number of participants registered for the event. The varied composition of the audience ensured vibrant discussions and an inclusive learning environment. The active engagement of participants during the interactive session reflected their genuine interest in understanding the transformative potential of AI in research and academia.

Brief Report of the Session

The program commenced with a welcome address by Dr. A. Ranganath, Registrar, who emphasized the institution's strong academic heritage and the significance of research in fostering intellectual growth. His address inspired both students and faculty, underlining the value of critical thinking and lifelong learning in academia. The highlight of the event was an enlightening session by Dr. Princy Randhawa, Associate Professor at Dayanand Sagar University, Bengaluru, on "Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Research: Present Context and Future Directions." Dr. Randhawa's presentation explored AI's transformative role across sectors such as healthcare, agriculture, and education. She discussed innovative integrations of AI with IoT and wearable technologies, emphasizing applications in health monitoring, precision medicine, and mental health assessment. Her insights into explainable AI, ethics, and interdisciplinary research offered a visionary perspective on the future of AI in academia and beyond. A special interactive session led by Prof. (Dr.) Dhananjay Datta, Dean of Research & Development, further enriched the program. The discussion focused on research development, publication ethics, and strategies for enhancing research quality and global impact. The event concluded with closing remarks by Mr. Ambarish Majumder, Research Scholar, Faculty of Management and Commerce, who extended gratitude to the speakers and participants. He emphasized the importance of continued academic engagement and collaborative research in promoting innovation and excellence within the university community.

Detail Report of the Program

- Dr. A. Ranganath, Registrar, began with a welcome address highlighting the institution's rich academic heritage and the importance of research, emphasizing the pivotal role of scholarly inquiry in academic growth, the address set the tone for an engaging and insightful interaction. His address inspired students and faculty alike, reinforcing the importance of critical thinking and continuous learning in the academic journey.
- Dr. Princy Randhawa, the eminent Associate Professor at Dayanand Sagar University, Bengaluru, delivered an extraordinary and profoundly enlightening session on "Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Research: Present Context and Future Directions". Her presentation captivated the audience, showcasing AI's transformative impact across diverse fields such as healthcare, agriculture, and education. Dr. Randhawa eloquently demonstrated how AI, when integrated with cutting-edge technologies like IoT and wearable devices, is revolutionizing real-time health monitoring, precision medicine, chronic disease management, and mental health assessment. She highlighted groundbreaking research applications, illustrating how intelligent systems are not only automating processes but also enabling predictive insights and personalized solutions, thereby redefining the very scope of scientific inquiry. Beyond current trends, Dr. Randhawa provided a visionary outlook on the future of AI, emphasizing the critical importance of explainable AI, ethical considerations, and interdisciplinary collaboration to address complex global challenges. Her session seamlessly blended technical depth with inspirational foresight, leaving participants deeply motivated to explore the limitless possibilities AI offers in research. The audience was profoundly impressed by her clarity, expertise, and the passion she brought to the topic, making this session a truly memorable and transformative experience that will continue to influence and inspire researchers in the years to come.

- Prof (Dr.) Dhananjoy Datta, Dean of Research & Development, conducted a special Question & Answer session by focusing on research development, publication ethics, and academic innovation. He engaged participants in a highly interactive discussion, offering valuable insights on improving research quality, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration, and enhancing global visibility through impactful publications.
- The closing remarks of the event were delivered by Mr. Ambarish Majumder, Research Scholar from Faculty of Management and Commerce. He expressed heartfelt gratitude to the esteemed speakers, participants, and organizers for making the sessions intellectually enriching and inspiring. Mr. Majumder highlighted the importance of continued academic dialogue and collaborative research in fostering innovation and excellence within the university's research community.
